GERMANS STORM FORT, SINK RUSS SHIP

Frank Jury Fails to Fix Any Blame

VICTORIOUS FIGHTERS TAKE HILL IN RUSSIA

Berlin, Aug. 24.—A hill at Kopylov, to the southwest of the Russian fortress of Brest-Litovsk, has been stormed by the Teutonic forces, according to an official statement given out today by the German army headquarters.

Berlin, Aug. 24.—(By wireless to Sayville, N. Y.)—The German admiralty today announced that a German submarine had torpedoed and sunk a Russian auxiliary ship at the entrance to the gulf of Finland.

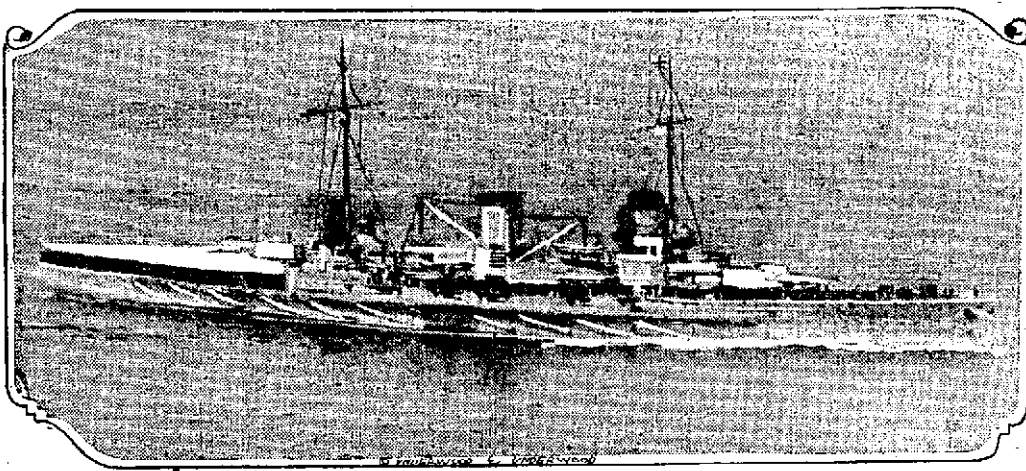

SUFFRAGETTES WILL HAVE DAY AT FAIR

Columbus, Aug. 24.—Ohio suffragettes will have their day at the Ohio State Fair. Announcement was made today that Wednesday, September 1 had been set aside in their honor. The suffragettes will give a demonstration of this occasion which will include a big parade through the fair grounds. The hand of the Boys' Industrial Home, Lancaster, will march at the head of the parade. Leading suffragettes will speak at a meeting which will be held either before or after the parade.

STEAMER ARRIVES

New York, Aug. 24.—The steamship Illogova with passengers and cargo from Copenhagen arrived here today. Officers of the ship said they were held up by British cruisers in the North Sea on three different occasions during the trip, but were allowed to proceed after identification was established. Among the passengers was H. W. Zimmerman, American vice consul at Rostov, Russia.

GERMAN BATTLE CRUISER MOLTKE LATEST BIG VESSEL TO JOIN "SUBMARINE" FLEET

The Moltke.

In the naval battle at Riga the Russians proved they are not quite helpless by driving off the Germans and sinking several enemy ships, including the battle cruiser Moltke. The Moltke was of 23,000 tons and carried in ordinary times a complement of 1,107 men. She was 690 feet long and was armed with ten 11-inch and twelve 6-inch guns and twelve 24-pounders. In addition, her armament included four 20-inch torpedo tubes. She was built in 1911 and had a speed of about 28 knots. Her cost was about $12,000,000.

ANTI-SALOON MEN MEET, PLAN FIGHT

Newark, O., Aug. 24.—Leaders in the anti-saloon league organization convened at Summerland Beach, Buckeye Lake, today to formulate plans for the campaign this fall in behalf of state wide prohibition. The conference was made up of members of the executive committee of the anti-saloon league, its state officials and chairmen of the "dry" organizations in the various counties.

James A. White, president of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, presided and Colonel Eugene Kautzman of Columbus; Charles Steble of New York and John Schaubly of Westerville were among those who were active in the deliberations of the conference.

It was semi-authoritatively stated that the campaign for state-wide prohibition will be formally opened in some of the counties as early as the middle of September while in others the opening will be delayed until October 1. The date of the opening in each instance will be left to the discretion of the various county organizations.

While those in attendance are giving some attention to the proposed "constitutional stability" amendment which seeks to restrict the number of times which amendments may be submitted it was stated that only incidental consideration was being given this subject at this time. The matter of state-wide prohibition is to be made to overshadow all other issues.

Not only will the county organizations dedicate the time of opening and the general character of campaign to be conducted in each county but each county will as near as possible, finance its own expenses. It was generally understood this forenoon. This method of financing the campaign was adopted last year and its operation at that time is held to have been satisfactory.

While those in attendance are giving some attention to the proposed "constitutional stability" amendment which seeks to restrict the number of times which amendments may be submitted it was stated that only incidental consideration was being given this subject at this time. The matter of state-wide prohibition is to be made to overshadow all other issues.

Willis Is Opposed To Referendum On McDermott Law

Columbus, Aug. 24.—Governor Willis this afternoon gave out a statement in which he said that he was vigorously opposed to the proposed referendum on the McDermott liquor license law. The statement added that the governor has called a meeting of members of the state liquor license commission to determine if any points of officers are involved in the movement for the referendum. Removal from office is promised if evidence is found establishing any such connection.

CARRANZA ISSUES AMNESTY EDICT

Laredo, Texas, Aug. 24.—An amnesty proclamation by General Carranza the terms of which are not definitely known as yet today began to draw many Mexican families out of this section into Mexico.

Fighting continues in the region of Saltillo and Icamate, consisting chiefly of artillery duels according to advices brought here today. No decisive results have been obtained by either side. Forty cars of silver bullion are in Nuevo Laredo awaiting transportation to New Jersey.

ADVANCES OIL PRICES.

Pittsburgh, Aug. 24.—Five cents a barrel was added to the price of the principal grades of crude oil today when the South Pennsylvania Company advanced the price of Penna. crude to $1.60. Mercer black, New Castel and Cabels $1.20; Corning, $1.06. Two cents was tacked to Ragland, bringing it to 65c but there was no change in Somerset. This is the third advance within two weeks.

EXAMINES ELEVEN IN PROBE OF LYNCHING

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 24.—Without being able to elicit from any one of eleven witnesses a single clue as to the identity of any person connected with the lynching of Leo M. Frank, near this city, last Tuesday morning, a coroner's jury today returned a verdict that Frank came to his death by hanging at the hands of parties unknown.

City and county officials testified that they had endeavored diligently to get at the facts of the lynching but so far their efforts had been of no avail.

"Of course you know these things are kept pretty close and are hard to find out," said Mayor E. P. Dobbs, of Marietta.

Deputy Sheriff Hicks and City Marshal Looney stated they were working hard on the case but at this time they knew little of the (Continued On Page Six)

WANTS U. S. TO DEFER ACTION ON SINKING OF LINER ARABIC

Washington, Aug. 24.—If it was due to the action of a German submarine that American citizens lost their lives in the torpedoing of the steamship Arabic such action was contrary to the intentions of the German government, according to official advices received today by the German ambassador from Berlin and telegraphed by him to Washington.

It was also said in the communication that the German government deeply regrets such a loss of life and would tender the sincerest sympathies to the American government.

Washington, Aug. 24.—German, through her ambassador, Count Von Bernstorff, today asked the United States not to take a final stand on the sinking of the White Star liner Arabic until all the facts were known. It was the first word from Germany, since the disaster.

Count Von Bernstorff telegraphed the state department today saying he made the request at the instruction of his government and added that the German admiralty had not yet been able to get a report on the sinking. The ambassador's message comes as the first ray of promise on the situation which admittedly was growing darker with each hour of silence on the part of Germany. Now the state department can do nothing but wait reasonable time for word from Berlin.

Ambassador Gerard has been instructed to watch for a report but has not been told to ask for one. The German ambassador's request today indicates that one soon may be volunteered.

Meanwhile the state department is gathering evidence from all other sources to supplement (Continued On Page Six)

CITIES THREATENED WITH GAS FAMINE

Little Rock, Ark., Aug. 24.—Little Rock, Hot Springs, Pine Bluff, and a number of other Arkansas towns, today were threatened with a gas famine as the result of floods causing a break in the main at Red River, near Louisville. Local officials announced the supply of gas would be exhausted by noon tomorrow.

Newport today remained cut off from railroad communication with the outside world by the flood waters of White river. Although the water has risen little since last night, reports from points above Newport indicate that a further rise may be expected.

About 4,000 residents of Newport and vicinity crowded into two local hotels, the court house, the Lyon Mountain depot and a few homes into which the water did not rise.

Steamboats continued bringing refugees out of the flooded district. Telegraph communication was resumed with Batesville today. Refugees who were taken from Oil Trough, denied that a family of five persons were drowned in the overflow in the bottoms near Oil Trough.

Kenton, Ohio, Aug. 24.—Samuel Wickard, 77, a wealthy reclusive resident of Forest, Ohio, hanged himself with a clothes line to his bedpost this morning.

I don't want a discredit anybody's word, but personally I'm gonna take that story o' th' Russian naval victory with a grain o' salt till I hear th' other side. It's easy t' get a feller t' take your advice if you know in advance what sort of advice he wants. Here's a line on tomorrow's weather:

Ohio—Partly cloudy in South. Thunder showers in north portions this afternoon or tonight. Cooler tonight in north portion. Wednesday fair and cooler.

Kentucky—Fair and cooler tonight. Wednesday fair, cooler east portions.

West Virginia—Partly cloudy tonight. Probably showers east portions; Wednesday partly cloudy.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Weather predictions for the week beginning tomorrow for various parts of the country were announced today by the weather bureau and include:

Ohio Valley—Fair and cool weather for about three days, followed by rising temperature and some cloudiness and probably by showers some time during the last few days of the week.

'Safunny World; Lawrence Patterson Leads In Fashions, But He Isn't Proud Of It At All

By VAN.

'Safunny world after all. When a guy is out of style he is out of harmony with the world, and when he is in style he's all out of harmony also.

At best, Lawrence Patterson is, for according to reports, Lawrence is right in the height of fashion, and is a trifle further advanced than the rest of the advanced dressers of Portsmouth, and still he isn't satisfied.

That Lawrence is a good swimmer, and that he likes the water is a settled fact. Had it not been for the water he would not be leading the young men of the city in fashions right now.

According to this report Lawrence was invited out to a summer, and that he likes the water is a settled fact. Had it not been for the water he would not be leading the young men of the city in fashions right now.

War Sympathizers Should Realize The Associated Press Is Neutral

It is only natural for citizens of Portsmouth to sympathize with one or the other faction in the gigantic war now being waged throughout Europe. They are to be admired rather than censured for their stand, it matters not what side they cast their sympathy with.

But they should not condemn their newspaper when it prints war news that does not give credit to the power or powers they uphold, for they should realize that the newspaper is forced to depend on the news service it takes.

The Associated press, whose service The Times takes, is known to be the most reliable news gathering organization in the world, and the possibility of this association favoring one or the other side in the European struggle is preposterous. The Associated Press in turn is forced to supply their clients daily with war news, and they send out such stuff that gets through the various censor boards.

On one day the Times may print a story which favors one side, while on the following day later details may have been secured which change altogether the result of a battle or some other important phase of the struggle.

For this The Times should not be censured. Neither should the Associated Press be scored, for both The Times and its news gathering association attempt to print the truth, and it can be said for the Associated Press, that they never send out any story unless it is a settled fact there is some truth in it.

The above is written owing to the fact that a war sympathizer unwittingly criticised The Times one day recently relative to a story against his party, whereas, several days before he praised The Times and the Associated Press when The Times printed a story which favored the cause he is supporting.

This, and all other war sympathizers should realize that a good newspaper is supposed to print all the news, and they should accept it all in good faith. If we failed to print the news we would be censured much more.

Modern Hotel For Ironton Is Assured, Will Soon Contract

The Ironton Irontonian Tuesday morning said:

"A modern hotel for Ironton is assured.

"This much was determined at a conference Monday night of the hotel company directors and Mr. S. H. Meyer, of Charleston, W. Va., representing the Reed Construction Company, of that city, which will erect the new hotel.

"At the meeting last night a contract for the new building was approved by the board of directors and the president and secretary of the company were authorized to sign it. This will be done just as soon as the instrument is gone over by

Mr. Meyer's attorneys. Mr. Meyer returns to Charleston immediately to have this matter taken up at once. He stated that the contract was perfectly agreeable to him and that he saw no matters of controversy in the same, but it was the rule of his company to have all contracts approved by their legal advisors before they were executed.

"Thus it may be confidently stated that Ironton's modern hostelry, so long anticipated, and for which there is such a crying need, is a matter solely of the time it will take to construct it.

"The work of construction is expected to begin within a few days after the signing of the contract."

ARE WOMEN NATURALLY DESPONDENT?

A prominent writer so claims. Women are constituted with a delicate organism and in nine cases out of ten mental depression may be attributed to an abnormal condition of the system, which expresses itself in nervousness, sleeplessness, backache, headaches, causing constant misery, and as a result despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, is the one great remedy for this condition. It goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes despondency.

News of this action was received at the headquarters of the fund in this city today. Captain De Poies, who is in charge of the fund, wrote branches of the army are supporting the plan. The scholarships are in music, art and sculpture and will be known as the La Fayette Fund Scholarships of the Army. The captain wrote that 40,000 soldiers had been helped and comforted by the kits forwarded to them by the La Fayette.

Now Are the Days Children Need Care

SUMMER HEAT DANGEROUS TO LITTLE ONES IF BOWELS ARE NEGLECTED

A mother cannot do better for her child than to train it from early infancy to regular habits, not only as a preventive against much of the illness to which children are more or less subject, but also to insure their health in later life.

Normal activity of the bowels is the basis of sound health. This is especially true with children in hot weather. Do not neglect any tendency they may show to constipation, but promptly administer a gentle laxative, that will carry off the congested waste without shocking the system.

An excellent remedy for this purpose is the combination of simple laxative herbs with psyllium known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores for only fifty cents a bottle. It does not contain opiates, narcotics, or harmful habit-forming drugs of

DR. YORK STRUCK BY A STRAY BULLET

A bullet hole in his right arm is being carried by Dr. J. F. York, of Sciotoville, as the result of an accidental shooting about eleven o'clock Monday night.

The bullet glanced, crashed through a plate glass window in the drug store and struck Dr. York in the right arm. An ugly but not serious wound was inflicted.

"When questioned Monday, he stated that the announcement of the construction of a $325,000 hotel had come as a complete surprise to him. It is not connected in any way, he said, with the negotiations which began several weeks ago. He has

Marguerite Clark At Lyric Tomorrow Marguerite in an idyllic blending of comedy and sentiment, "Gretna Green."

Marguerite Clark, the dainty and flirt, who queens it over the beaux of the realm with sovereign sway, until she loses her heart under circumstances both humorous and dramatic.

Miss Clark's winsome personality, her piquant beauty and elfin grace assist her in making the role of Dolly one of her greatest character creations. The romance and humor of "Gretna Green" have thrilled and amused countless audiences as a play, and the screen version of this novel subject, with the amplification of the plot and the authentic reproduction of the famous Green, made possible only through the film production, enhances the general interest and appeal of the story, while the striking and unique costumes of the period contribute to the total charm of the picture.

The admission will be ten cents on this picture, for both afternoon and evening.

"Chimmie Fadden", Paramount Attraction Columbia Tonight Without any doubt, the best comedy ever produced on the famous Paramount program is offered at the Columbia this evening in "Chimmie Fadden, with Victor Moore as "Chimmie."

"Chimmie Fadden" is one of the most famous Irish-American characters ever created. He first appeared before the public in a series of newspaper stories by E. W. Townsend. These stories became the foundation of a book which sold in vast quantities and of a play which was popular for years, making "Chimmie" literally a national figure.

"Chimmie" is a Bowery boy of the rough, but good hearted type. He saves a rich young woman of stunning tendencies from the insults of a "mascher" and thus becomes a footman in the household of Millionaire Van Cortlandt, accepting the position because he has become fascinated by the young lady's French maid, whom he dubs "The Duchess."

The complications of the story ensue "Chimmie" to be accused of burglary, but he is finally proved innocent and his love story with the beautiful lady's maid has a happy conclusion.

"Chimmie Fadden" is a document of New York life truly worthy of being preserved in photo-dramatic form. The natural eccentricities of the character give the play a rare individuality.

If you enjoy a good, hearty laugh, you certainly want to see "Chimmie Fadden" at the Columbia tonight.

"The Legacy of Folly," a three-reel Broadway Favorites feature picture tomorrow, and "The Middleman," a Metro masterpiece in five thrilling reels on Thursday make two picture programs that are hard to beat.

THEATRICAL

Sun Opens Monday

The announcement that the vaudeville season at the Sun theatre will open Monday matinee August 30 will, no doubt, be hailed with joy by the many lovers of this style of amusement so right here the management is going to say that the vaudeville program this season will be good in every particular and will be composed of acts that are known favorites on the Sun time as well as the other recognized vaudeville circuits.

The Sun theatre this season will be managed by H. L. Hamilton or "Lud" Hamilton as he is known to many in Portsmouth and he will be remembered as the manager of the old Orpheum on Chillicothe street in 1907 and by his courtesy and his endeavors to please his patrons in every way he built up a clientele that made the Orpheum show a nice margin of profit even in the panic days that were in vogue at that time. Mr. Hamilton is well known in the show business having been connected in every angle—the dramatic, circus, carnival, vaudeville—in fact he has had much experience in all these lines.

Last season Mr. Hamilton managed the Nancy Boyer Stock to one of the best known touring stock companies; the season before managed the big Auditorium theatre at Newark, O.; the season before the Orpheum theatre, Cincinnati, so the reader will readily see that Mr. Hamilton is an novice at the theatrical management game and it will be his earnest endeavor to give his patrons the best to be obtained in the vaudeville field.

The Sun theatre is being overhauled in every way. The Prime Decorating Company, of Springfield, have a force of decorators at work beautifying the auditorium, the color scheme being in gold and when completed no prettier house will be found anywhere. New scenery from the Arhruster Studio at Columbus will give the stage a Metropolitan air. New tungsten lights have been placed all over and when the opening takes place Monday, Aug. 30 the patrons will be much pleased with the numerous improvements for their comfort.

The opening program will be announced in Thursday's issue.

TO CONVERT GRAND OPERA HOUSE INTO BUSINESS BLOCK

The Grand Opera House building, Fourth and Chillicothe streets, which was practically destroyed by fire September 3, 1914, is soon to be rebuilt and converted into a business block.

An announcement of this character was made Tuesday afternoon by Judge James W. Bannan, who with Simon Labold, president of the First National bank, own the building.

Coupled with the announcement was the news that Portsmouth would in all probability receive another 5 and 10 cent store as a representative of the Kresge company would arrive here Wednesday to confer with Judge Bannan and Mr. Labold relative to changes to be made in the building.

It is to receive a solid plate glass front on the Chillicothe and Fourth street sides and there will be two commodious business rooms on the first floor. The building will be four stories high and will have an ornate front of stone and brick, the plans to be worked out later by Architect Richard M. Bates.

It is possible that the Kresge company may take the entire lower floor of the building.

The upper floors of the building may be used for hotel purposes.

STATE MAN IS HERE IN BEHALF OF GOOD ROADS

G. F. Rudisill, state director for the Good Roads Association of Ohio, accompanied by a committee from the Board of Trade, called upon the board of county commissioners Tuesday afternoon, to interest them in the movement to construct attractive markers at the end of every mile along the Scioto Trail to the Pike county line.

The idea is to call attention to the improved condition of the Trail in this county, and to popularize the Scioto Trail with tourists. Portsmouth also will receive its share of advertising, according to the plan proposed.

Mr. Rudisill informed the board that at a meeting held in Chillicothe recently, an effort was made to change the name of the road to the "Scioto-Harrison Trail," but it failed. It is likely, however, that a portion of the Trail in the northern part of the state will be known by that name.

FORMER AMBASSADOR DRILLING "ROOKIES"

First Sergeant Robert Bacon at Plattsburg Encampment.

First Sergeant Robert Bacon, recent ambassador to France, was given temporary command of a platoon of "C" company and told to go as far as he liked with it, in drilling. So eager were the men in the command to show that they knew the war game thoroughly that at times they almost go awry from Sergeant Bacon. "Please, please, men," came the voice of the former diplomat, "don't hurry so—keep even! Don't rush things. For heaven's sake do this thing right. Don't let us have an awkward squad here."

Mr. Bierley is also building two six room houses on his property facing the Scioto Trail.

H. A. Bierley Sells Home

H. A. Bierley through a deal closed Tuesday sold W. C. Buss's new brick house at 1806 Chillicothe street to B. L. Hopkins, who with his family will occupy it at once.

Mr. Bierley is also building two six room houses on his property facing the Scioto Trail.

The latest coincidence which has just come to my knowledge (writes a correspondent) befell an elderly gentleman well known in literary circles. Wishing to refer to a book he had used in his school days, he visited the second-hand shop in Charing Cross road which specializes in this class of work. On inquiry he found they had one copy of the volume in stock. When he opened it he found on the front page his own name written there well over forty years ago.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Gyntha Turner Pyles

Gyntha Turner Pyles, born Sept. 14th, 1894, departed this life July 15th, 1915, age twenty years, ten months and four days. She was united in marriage to Leslie E. Pyles June 25th, 1913. She leaves a husband and son, Leslie Earl, Jr., a father, mother and one sister, Cinda Turner, besides a host of loving, sorrowing friends.

She was converted Feb. 1914, under the ministry of Rev. Fisher, who united her in marriage to the one of her choice, and who will now commit her to her last resting place. We now pause to ask why this is! But, oh, our Heavenly Father knows. A home-loving and a home-making little woman, living for her loved ones, and loving and being loved by all, content with her lot, busy planning for the welfare of her loved ones. Now we must again take up life's burdens and responsibilities.

There's a Difference.

An enterprising gentleman of the breezy West, who superintends the "railroad eating house" in his town, has recently hung out a sign that furnishes considerable amusement to those who pass by, says Lippincott's. It reads: "Pies like mother used to make, five cents; pies like mother used to try to make, ten cents."

bility with a firmer faith and a sad heart for having known and loved her, determined to live better for having found in her loving innocence a child-like trust for this life and the one beyond. We loved her; yes, God loved her more. He took her home. She will meet us on the other shore. A FRIEND.

Leslie Earl Pyles, Jr.
Leslie Earl Pyles, infant son of Cynthia and Leslie Pyles, was born July 17, 1915, departed this life July 27, 1915. The mother preceded him to the Great Beyond ten days.

He leaves a sorrowing father and grandparents besides a host of relatives and friends, yet willingly they give him back to our Creator, as well as to his mother, her little Leslie on whom she had built such great hopes.
Oh what a happy meeting on the other shore. For Jesus said suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven.
Dearest Leslie thou hast left us, and thy love we deeply feel,
But 'tis God who has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal.
For this was just a bud on earth to bloom in Heaven.

Mrs. O. V. Gammon

Friends of Mrs. O. V. Gammon will be surprised to learn of her death in Ashland, Ky. The Ashland Independent says:
"Mrs. Gammon, wife of O. V. Gammon, passed away at 4 o'clock Monday morning, after an illness of several years of a complication of troubles. Mrs. Gammon was born March 1, 1869 at Portsmouth, Ohio. She was the daughter of William and Abigail Lawson. She was united in marriage on November 18, 1897 to O. V. Gammon and directly after their marriage they came to this city, where Mr. Gammon went into business. They have since resided here, where they made many warm friends. She was a consistent member of the Christian church and a regular attendant there until her last illness. She was a devoted wife, a loving mother and her neighbors speak in the highest terms of her, for she was kind and thoughtful of them and they loved her dearly. But where she will be missed most will be in her home, for she was a devoted wife and loving mother, and her whole thought was of her household."
"Besides her husband, she is survived by four children: Frank Edsworth, Harry Van, Irene Althea and Alvin Taylor, the youngest six years of age. She is also survived by three brothers, Burke, Ernest and Floyd Lawson, all of Portsmouth; two sisters, Mrs. George Watkins and Mrs. Oscar Allen, also of Portsmouth."

The remains will be brought to this city on the C. & O. train Wednesday noon. The funeral services will be held at Manly church at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Interment in Greenlawn.

Modern Hotel For Ironton Is Assured, Will Soon Contract

The Ironton Irontonian Tuesday morning said:

"A modern hotel for Ironton is assured."

"This much was determined at a conference Monday night of the hotel company directors and Mr. S. H. Meyer, of Charleston, W. Va., representing the Reed Construction Company, of that city, which will erect the new hotel."

"At the meeting last night a contract for the new building was approved by the board of directors and the president and secretary of the company were authorized to sign it. This will be done just as soon as the instrument is gone over by Mr. Meyer's attorneys. Mr. Meyer returns to Charleston immediately to have this matter taken up at once. He stated that the contract was perfectly agreeable to him and that he saw no matters of controversy in the same, but it was the rule of his company to have all contracts approved by their legal advisors before they were executed."

"Thus it may be confidently stated that Ironton's modern hotel, so long anticipated, and for which there is such a crying need, is a matter solely of the time it will take to construct it."

"The work of construction is expected to begin within a few days after the signing of the contract."

DR. YORK STRUCK BY A STRAY BULLET

A bullet hole in his right arm is being carried by Dr. J. F. York, of Seabrook, as the result of an accidental shooting about eleven o'clock Monday night.

Constable Clinton Daniels seeing two dogs in the street in front of the York drugstore whipped out his 38 caliber revolver and shot at them. The bullet glanced, crashed through a plate glass window in the drug store and struck Dr. York in the right arm. An ugly but not serious wound was inflicted.

Big Hotel Won't Pay Says One Promoter

The Chillicothe News-Advertiser says of the F. B. Haynes, hotel deal for Portsmouth:

"Close upon the heels of negotiations by F. B. Haynes, of the Haynes hotel, information was received from Portsmouth to the effect that a group of capitalists had entered into negotiations for the erection of a $325,000 hotel in the heart of the city. Haynes is not connected with this proposition."

"When questioned Monday, he stated that the announcement of the construction of a $325,000 hotel had come as a complete surprise to him. It is not connected in any way, he said, with the negotiations which began several weeks ago. He has tried to obtain further information concerning the announcement, but as yet has been unable to learn anything."

"A $325,000 hotel would be a little ahead of Portsmouth," he said. "The expenses would be extremely high. The plans which the group of men, with whom I am connected, have arranged, provide for a more modest building with 50 rooms, such a hotel as could be made to pay dividends."

"I might say," he added, "that I have received information from a Portsmouth architect to the effect that arrangements could be made to finance the construction of such a building as I propose."

The Movies

Marguerite Clark At Lyric Tomorrow
Marguerite in an idyllic blending of comedy and sentiment, "Gretna Green."

Marguerite Clark, the dainty and fascinating stage and screen favorite, is certain to add appreciably to her astounding popularity in the Famous Players Film Company's picturization of the celebrated comedy romance, "Gretna Green," by Grace Livingston Furniss. This quaint and picturesque play possesses all the varying elements essential to the successful screen drama—love, sacrifice, humor, mystery and thrill—and is laid in the charming period of the early nineteenth century, when daring elopements to Gretna Green, a lover's haven in the north of Scotland, added a dash of excitement to many love-matches, when hearts reigned over the marts of commerce just before the prose of business usurped the poetry of romance.

In "Gretna Green" Marguerite Clark beautifully portrays the adorable character of Dolly Eskling, a little English belle and a bit of a flirt, who queens it over the beaux of the realm with sovereign sway, until she loses her heart under circumstances both humorous and dramatic.

Miss Clark's winsome personality, her piquant beauty and elfin grace assist her in making the role of Dolly one of her greatest character creations. The romance and humor of "Gretna Green" have thrilled and amused countless audiences as a play, and the screen version of this noted subject, with the amplification of the plot and the authentic reproduction of the famous Green, made possible only through the film production, enhance the general interest and appeal of the story, while the striking and unique costumes of the period contribute to the total charm of the picture.

The admission will be ten cents on this picture, for both afternoon and evening.

"Chimmie Fadden", Paramount Attraction Columbia Tonight
Without any doubt, the best comedy ever produced on the famous Paramount program is offered at the Columbia this evening in "Chimmie Fadden," with Victor Moore as "Chimmie."

"Chimmie Fadden" is one of the most famous Irish-American characters ever created. He first appeared before the public in a series of newspaper stories by E. W. Townsend. These stories became the foundation of a book which sold in vast quantities and of a play, which was popular for years, making "Chimmie" literally a national figure.

"Chimmie" is a bowery boy of the rough, but good-hearted type. He saves a rich young woman of stammering tendencies from the insults of a "manster" and thus becomes a footman in the household of Millionaire Van Cortlandt, accepting the position because he has become fascinated by the young lady's French maid, whom he dubs "The Duchess." The complications of the story leave "Chimmie" to be accused of burglary, but he is finally proved innocent and his love story with the beautiful lady's maid has a happy conclusion.

"Chimmie Fadden" is a document of New York life truly worthy of being preserved in photo-dramatic form. The natural eccentricities of the character give the play a rare individuality.

If you enjoy a good, hearty laugh, you certainly want to see "Chimmie Fadden" at the Columbia tonight. "The Legacy of Folly," a three-reel Broadway favorite, features picture tomorrow, and "The Middleman," a Metro masterpiece in five thrilling reels on Thursday make two picture programs that are hard to beat.

Watch the papers for further announcement on these two great pictures and be sure to see them.

Wurlitzer Orchestra, the greatest music machine of the age—one that plays perfectly eight different instruments and one that is bound to add to the popularity of the Arcana.

5c Temple Theatre

Tonight's program is a drama of strong appeal in two parts, featuring Walter Edwards, and Leon Hutton. It is a Domino production, entitled "The Burglar's Baby". At The Scenic Tonight's feature at the Scenic is the Selig two reel comedy drama entitled "The Ingratitude of Liz Taylor". The third reel is an Essanay drama entitled "The Other Girl", featuring G. M. Anderson. The fourth reel is a screamingly funny Vitaphone comedy called "They Loved Him So" with Flora Finch, Jay DWIGGINS and Kate Price featured. Tomorrow's feature is the Broadway star feature in three acts entitled "The Girl Who Might Have Been", a powerful dramatic feature with Harry Morey, Betty Gray and Neil Finley.

At The Exhibit

ARE WOMEN NATURALLY DESPONDENT?

A prominent writer so claims. Women are constituted with a delicate organism and in nine cases out of ten mental depression may be attributed to an abnormal condition of the system, which expresses itself in nervousness, sleeplessness, backache, headaches, causing constant misery, and as a result despondency. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a simple remedy made from roots and herbs, is the one great remedy for this condition. It goes to the root of the trouble and overcomes despondency.

French Will Give Americans Scholarship

New York, Aug. 24—Soldiers of the French army have arranged for the establishment in Paris of three scholarships for Americans to be endowed and perpetuated as a monument of gratitude for the sympathy which America has shown to France during the war, and as an evidence of their appreciation of the work of the La Fayette fund.

News of this action was received at the headquarters of the fund in this city today. Captain De Poilles wrote branches of the army are supporting the plan. The scholarships are in music, art and sculpture and will be known as the La Fayette Fund Scholarships of the Army. The captain wrote that 40,000 soldiers had been helped and comforted by the kits forwarded to them by the La Fayette.

Now Are the Days Children Need Care

SUMMER HEAT DANGEROUS TO LITTLE ONES IF BOWELS ARE NEGLECTED

A mother cannot do better for her child than to train it from early infancy to regular habits, not only as a preventive against much of the illness to which children are more or less subject, but also to insure their health in later life.

Normal activity of the bowels is the basis of sound health. This is especially true with children in hot weather. Do not neglect any tendency they may show to constipation, but promptly administer a gentle laxative, that will carry off the congested waste without shocking the system.

An excellent remedy for this purpose is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and sold in drug stores for only fifty cents a bottle. It does not contain opiates, narcotics, or harmful habit-forming drugs of the

Henry Bertram Star In The Geeks Fair

Reports on the progress on the various committees in charge of the arrangements for the Geeks' Indoor Fair, Sept. 6 to 11, in District hall, were made at the meeting of the executive committee Monday evening. Several new and original ideas are being carried out, which will be a big surprise to the patrons of the fair. The committee has secured Henry Bertram, the prince of Portsmouth's funmakers, as headliner for the vaudeville entertainment. Bertram and Sam Williams, another local comedian, will put on a sketch.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to express our sincere and heartfelt thanks to our relatives and friends for the sympathy extended to us in our sad bereavement in the loss of our dearly beloved daughter and sister, Marguerite Rosalind Kibbey. Also for the many beautiful floral offerings. Especially do we thank Rev. Connell for his consoling words at the house and grave, the pallbearers and Mr. Roger Selby's Sunday school class, also the beautiful solo and music, the funeral directors C. F. Daehler and company for the efficient manner in which they conducted the funeral.

ALLIES HAVE PLAN TO HEAL COMMERCIAL DIFFERENCES WITH U. S.; WILL BUY AT FAIR PRICE ALL OF THIS YEAR'S COTTON

Ambassador Jusserand of France, J. P. Morgan; Secretary Lansing and Ambassador Spring-Rice of England.

Details of a plan whereby Great Britain and France contemplate healing all commercial differences with the United States over the blockade of neutral European ports have been made public. Through the operation of this plan, which was presented to Secretary of State Lansing and J. P. Morgan by Ambassador Spring-Rice and approved by them, the allies expect to make a market for the entire cotton crop this year, and in addition they will attempt to purchase all quantities of wheat, corn, and packing house products which are available.

TO CONVERT GRAND OPERA HOUSE INTO BUSINESS BLOCK

The Grand Opera House building, Fourth and Chillicothe streets, which was practically destroyed by fire September 3, 1914, is soon to be rebuilt and converted into a business block.

An announcement of this character was made Tuesday afternoon by Judge James W. Bannon, who with Simon Labold, president of the First National bank, own the building.

Coupled with the announcement was the news that Portsmouth would in all probability receive another 5 and 10 cent store as a representative of the Kresge company would arrive here Wednesday to confer with Judge Bannon and Mr. Labold relative to changes to be made in the building.

It is to receive a solid plate glass front on the Chillicothe and Fourth street sides and there will be two commodious business rooms on the first floor.

The building will be four stories high and will have an ornate front of stone and brick, the plans to be worked out later by Architect Richard M. Bates.

It is possible that the Kresge company may take the entire lower floor of the building.

The upper floors of the building may be used for hotel purposes.

STATE MAN IS HERE IN BEHALF OF GOOD ROADS

G. F. Rudisill, state director for the Good Roads Association of Ohio, accompanied by a committee from the Board of Trade, called upon the board of county commissioners Tuesday afternoon, to interest them in the movement to construct attractive markers at the end of every mile along the Scioto Trail to the Pike county line.

The idea is to call attention to the improved condition of the trail in this county, and to popularize the Scioto Trail with tourists. Portsmouth also will receive its share of advertising, according to the plan proposed.

Mr. Rudisill informed the board that at a meeting held in Chillicothe recently, an effort was made to change the name of the road to the "Scioto-Harrison Trail," but it failed. It is likely however, that a portion of the trail in the northern part of the state will be known by that name.

First Sergeant Robert Bacon at Plattsburg Encampment.

First Sergeant Robert Bacon, recent ambassador to France, was given temporary command of a platoon of "C" company and told to go as far as he liked with it, in drilling. So eager were the men in the command to show that they knew the war game thoroughly that at times they almost got away from Sergeant Bacon. "Please, please, men," came the voice of the former diplomat, "don't hurry so—keep even! Don't rush things. For heaven's sake do this thing right. Don't let us have an awkward squad here."

Mr. Bacon is also building two six room houses on his property facing the Scioto Trail.

BENTON OWNED BY GIANTS

New York, Aug. 24.—The National Baseball Board of Directors today decided that Rube Benton, formerly of Cincinnati club, is legally the property of the New York club.

In announcing its decision the commission exonerates from all blame the Pittsburgh club, which it says, acted in good faith in holding the pitcher.

The commission also announced that the game between Chicago and Pittsburgh teams played on Aug. 17, and which was won by the former had been thrown out.

The End of it All.

Measuring things by dollars, by hours, by pounds and yardsticks, measures everything accurately enough except the one thing we wish to measure, which is a man's soul. We are producing the material things of life faster, more cheaply, more skillfully, but it is open to question whether we are producing happier men and women, and that is what we are striving to do at the end of it all.

Italy an Ancient Nation.

Italy may fairly claim to be senior among the nations of Europe so far as its name is concerned. The peninsula has been "Italy" almost as far back as even legend reaches. According to Mommsen the "Itali" proper were the inhabitants of the southern part of the country. As to the origin of the name, there is the normal legend of a King Italus; but his name must have been pronounced Vitellus or Vitellus, which means a bull-calf, and it is easy to recognize in it an allusion to Italy as the land of cattle.

There's a Difference.

An enterprising gentleman of the breezy West, who superintends the railroad eating house in his town, has recently hung out a sign that furnishes considerable amusement to those who pass by, says Lippincott's. It reads: "Plea like mother used to make, five cents; plea like mother used to try to make, ten cents."

Oh what a happy meeting on the other shore. For Jesus said suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Dearest Leslie thou hast left us, and thy love we deeply feel, But 'tis God who has bereft us, He can all our sorrows heal; For this was just a bud on earth to bloom in Heaven.

Mrs. O. V. Gammon

Friends of Mrs. O. V. Gammon will be surprised to learn of her death in Ashland, Ky. The Ashland Independent says:

"Mrs. Gammon, wife of O. V. Gammon, passed away at 4 o'clock Monday morning, after an illness of several years of a complication of troubles. Mrs. Gammon was born March 1, 1869 at Portsmouth, Ohio. She was the daughter of William and Abigail Lawson. She was united in marriage on November 18, 1897 to O. V. Gammon and directly after their marriage they came to this city, where Mr. Gammon went into business. They have since resided here, where they made many warm friends. She was a consistent member of the Christian church and a regular attendant there until her last illness. She was a devoted wife, a loving mother and her neighbors speak in the highest terms of her, for she was kind and thoughtful of them and they loved her dearly. But where she will be missed most will be in her home, for she was a devoted wife and loving mother, and her whole thought was of her household."

Besides her husband, she is survived by four children: Frank Ellsworth, Harry Van, Irene Alotha and Alvin Taylor, the youngest six years of age. She is also survived by three brothers, Burke, Ernest and Floyd Lawson, all of Portsmouth; two sisters, Mrs. George Watkins and Mrs. Oscar Allen, also of Portsmouth.

Forty Years in Stock.

The latest coincidence which has just come to my knowledge (writes a correspondent) befell an elderly gentleman well known in literary circles. Wishing to refer to a book he had used in his school days, he visited the second-hand shop in Charing Cross road which specializes in this class of work. On inquiry he found they had one copy of the volume in stock. When he opened it he found on the front page his own name written there well over forty years ago.—Pall Mall Gazette.

CALLS FOR ACTION.

A most undesirable element has come to this county as temporary residents in the wake of the railroad activities. Fighting, carousing, stabbings, shootings, dynamiting, are daily occurrences in the negro railroad construction camps, and up until the crowning outrage of last Saturday night, no attention had been paid to the affairs by the authorities. This is not right. It has had a tendency to make the rioters feel that they can do as they please and that they will not be disturbed, and the time has come for vigorous efforts to enforce the laws. So far the men have confined their activities to themselves, but there is no telling when they may overlap the bounds and residents of this county suffer as a result.

Conditions along the railroad camps of the C. & O. Northern are such that an officer of the law should be on duty much of the time, ready to arrest any and all disturbers. A trip to the work house would have a salutary effect upon the carousers, the crap shooters and the poker players. Let the authorities act, and act vigorously.

MR. BRYAN'S PLANS.

William Jennings Bryan was in Portland, Oregon, the other day and was asked the direct question if he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for president next year. In reply Mr. Bryan said:

"I have no political expectations whatever and no plans looking to the holding of any office in the future. The work which I have mapped out for my remaining years does not include the occupying of any political position. This answer covers every contingency and ought to be satisfactory to all classes except one. There is one class in this country that has insisted that I should promise never under any circumstances to be a candidate for anything. I have felt that it was unnecessary to gratify this class by making a promise of that kind, and I do not think it necessary to make that kind of a promise now. Friends will be satisfied to know my plans, and it is not necessary that I should undertake the hopeless task of pleasing those who count themselves among the politically unfriendly. It is enough for those who are unfriendly to know that I shall remain in politics for the rest of my life and that it will be my purpose hereafter, as it has been heretofore, to advocate that which I believe to be good for the masses of the people and to expose and oppose the plunderbund wherever it shows its hand."

There could not be anything more explicit than that. It is evident that Mr. Bryan has no expectation of being a candidate for the presidency next year and it is also evident that he expects to be found in the forefront of the campaign defending the principles for which he has stood so many years.

In the "agony column" of the London Times a man advertises for some philanthropic person to give him Two Hundred Pounds so that he can make a trip to the United States and observe conditions and public sentiment here, and thereby earn his everlasting gratitude. We would like to know if he got it. If he did we might feel encouraged to advertise for some kind, generous, philanthropic citizen to give to us a few hundred dollars so that we could inspect and report upon the Frisco Exposition.

Now France turns up with a cabinet crisis because her armies are short on munitions. Down in Southeast Missouri when a native makes up his mind to fight, he rubs his thighs, spits on his hands, agitates his arms and then wades in. The idea is to lumber up and the wonder is some of these countries didn't "lumber up" before they went out and met trouble, especially when they say they knew Germany was at it for the past thirty years.

It might not be a bad idea to take that contract away from George White and put Henry Ruel in charge of the work for the county, with instructions to have the tow path done by the time the bridge is completed. Henry would be as sure to make good as George is sure not to make good.

And now it turns out that all this stew about Portsmouth being the worst typhoid fever town on earth is all rot. The fellow simply had hold of the wrong figures and didn't know what he was talking about. This is still the Peerless town and it disdains to have to entertain such a foul guest as typhoid.

After reading about that little dynamiting jamboree out near Seabrook we suppose that some of our people have formed an idea of what the negro problem means to the citizens of some sections of the south.

Two Huntington bankers, Frank B. Enslow and Major H. O. Aleckire met with serious injuries in Los Angeles by falling in bath tubs. What's the matter? Haven't they learned how to manipulate a bath tub yet up at Huntington?

By due process of law, and with quickness and dispatch, Mr. "Kid" Walker should get what is coming to him for his part in the ghastly tragedy near Seabrook Saturday night, should events sustain the allegations that he is the guilty person.

It is a peculiar coincidence that the better his men fight the better becomes the health, physical and mental, of Emperor Francis Joseph.

AS IT WOULD SEEM.

THE LABOR SITUATION.

Bradstreet's, in the issue of August 21st, had this review of labor conditions in this country:

"Some branches of labor are being subjected to agitation, but on the whole the situation in general is not tense. There is a good deal of talk, which, however, does not draw very much fire. Lines in which war orders cause speeding up are principally affected by demands for higher pay and fewer hours to the working day. In that quarter the market demand favors the employee. In July, when abortive efforts were made to tie up certain industries in New England, there was more unrest than there has been since. While nothing short of a widespread census would enable one to say with true statistical accuracy just how many persons have been involved in strikes since January 1, this journal has over the years made a steady effort to keep a record of strikes that have occurred. The figures compiled suggest that the year, so far as it has gone, has been a relatively quiet period for strikes. If the remaining months do not produce anything extraordinary, 1915 will not merit special distinction in this respect. Over eight and one-half months of 1915 have passed, and in that time about 90,000 persons have taken part in strikes. In order to equal the figures for 1914, strikes involving 70,000 will have to be declared during the rest of the year. So far as surface indications go, employers are quite conciliatory in their attitude to employees. Where conditions allow, hours have been reduced and wages increased, while in a number of cases, those in which war orders favor, profit sharing or bonuses are being disbursed. It is in such ways that employers are quieting discontent or obviating agitation, while at the same time conceding that labor is worthy of its hire. With this spirit abroad the ground is not likely to prove fertile enough to yield widespread trouble. Where a legitimate end is sought in a legitimate way, no one can quarrel with the strike as a means of enforcing demands, but if unscrupulous leaders use their powers in a covert way to check the orderly course of industry, the why and wherefore of the situation will be revealed in time and to the discredit of those involved. The recent action of the International Machinists' organization, as enunciated by its president, suggests that while a campaign for an eight-hour day, higher wages and better working conditions is to be prosecuted, the calling of unnecessary strikes is not a part of the propaganda. In this respect the organization seems to be at variance with some few labor leaders, whose policy indicated a desire for a general strike of machinists."

Occasionally we are reminded by an item of news that a traction line to connect this city with Trouton is rapidly being constructed. It is bound to be an important adjunct to Portsmouth prosperity.

Our good young Governor is that mad because the agricultural board sits behind closed doors and squabbles over patronage. Well, he taught them the game and made all other affairs wait upon that.

It is the all mighty dollar for a fact.

Sketches of Little OLD NEW YORK
By M. J. McIntyre

New York, August 24.—(Hal Condon, a wireless operator on the steamship Minnehaha, was standing at Fifth Avenue and Fourteenth street enjoying a few hours of shore leave when a woman's handbag containing much jewelry, some money and a scandal descended upon him like some favor of the Caliph's in the Arabian Nights.

The bag was flung from a passing automobile in which five women were quarreling and now he has gone to sea with the treasure, including the letters, the blazing incriminating letters. Using the pilot as a postman he sent a letter to the Herald in which he says he would have left "all" in New York if it had not been for the nature of the letters. The "All" included keys to a vault, a large sum of money, a pearl necklace, three diamond rings, the accoutrements and symbols of a fortune guarded against reclamation by a hissing dragon of scandal coiled all about them. Condon promises to muzzle the dragon by refusing to divulge the contents of the letters. The lady must meet him at the pier upon his return and describe the lost articles.

But New York is wondering if her four quarrelsome companions will welcome it and Condon escape from the melee unharmless? Theophilus E. Niles, for ten years managing editor of the New York Evening Mail, has been appointed secretary to District Attorney Perkins. Niles was given the credit of "discovering" for New Yorkers at least such stars as Goldberg, the cartoonist, Grantland Rice, the sporting writer, "P. A." the paragrapher, Jerome Beatty, the cartoonist, Rolin Kirby, the cartoonist, and Zoe Beckley, a woman writer.

C. L. Edson, who admits he is the original Low Brow columnist and peer of all the Rough Neck Bards, has left New York newspaper work and is now in Arkansas—on Half Moon Mountain to be exact—writing the last chapter of the Great American Hick Novel. Edson has written to some of his friends that the book opens with the biggest dog fight in history and steadily increases in speed.

There are joint smashings, costume balls and the heroine gets herself tarred and feathered. Of course there is plenty of the unavoidable lure. (Sex Semper Tyrannis). He says frankly that he has lashed the English language into a lather of sweat and made his syllables do tricks like a clown's trained dogs.

He expects the New York writers without ideas to be shocked at his style and those without style to be shocked at his ideas. Some will declare him great and others an ingrate—but he believes it will get the money.

Here's to the man who holds his peace
When provocation's strong,
Who shuts his mouth and keeps it shut
When a word would set him wrong.
Who grips his temper firm and fast,
Nor loses self-control
Though he's tempted sore to vent his wrath
And silence sears his soul!

Here's to the man who holds his tongue
When you'd like to make him swear,
Who listens to all your stinging words
With a cool, provoking air.
Who keeps his grip on his rising wrath
When his temper's really bad,
Whose self-restraint you can't disturb!
And doesn't he make you mad?
—Exchange.

Why Wait For a Horse?
It was in a country town and the traveling company was playing "Richard III." The performance seemed to drag terribly and the audience became very tired.

"A horse, a horse: my kingdom for a horse!" roared the actor.

"If ye quit now ye'll be able to catch the tenthirty trolley!" shouted a tired voice.

IT'S ALL THE SAME---REAL OR ARTIFICIAL.

Those ghoul newspaper readers who were anxiously awaiting the arrival of the pictures showing the actual lynching of Leo M. Frank were at least disappointed by one paper. It was supposed that the Hearst papers would print a page or so of them but an announcement was made on the first page that all of the pictures had been received, but out of respect for the unfortunate mother of the young man, no photograph of the crime would be published.

Big Bill Edwards, the former foot ball star, has tossed his hat into the ring for the office of sheriff. Sheriffing in these parts is one of the fattest jobs to be captured. There is one good story that Big Bill's press agents came for campaign material. He caught the assailant of Mayor Gaynor.

Edwards was for some time Street Cleaning Commissioner and he did the job so well that he was offered the same position in Newark after a change of mayors cast him out of office.

The Hen and the Codfish

The business manager of a country paper in Missouri is destined either to boost his journal or win a place on the scroll of poetic fame. His masterpiece, "The Hen and the Codfish," is as follows:

The codfish lays a million eggs,
While the helpful hen lays one;
But the codfish does not cackle,
To inform us what she's done.
And so we scorn the codfish egg,
But the helpful hen we prize,
Which indicates to thoughtful minds
It pays to advertise.
—San Francisco Chronicle.

Getting Engaged At Home

"Where are you going, my pretty maid,
To spend the next few weeks?"
"I may go to the shore," she said,
"Or maybe to the penks."
"Or maybe I shall stay at home,"
She said with laughter clear.
"Why should a damsel want to roam?"
The men are thicker here."

An Honest Justice

Here is the very star of judicial quibbles. We clip it from Collier's. "Once in Montana a culprit was charged with stealing a skin of butter. The justice of the peace held that butter was grease, and that Greece was a foreign country; therefore the court had no jurisdiction—an dthe culprit was discharged."

Murphy's Dilemma

They met on the high road and shook hands.
"Shure, Pat," said Murphy, "betthin' a shoekin' bad habbit."
"Shure, Murphy," said Pat, "but why?"
"Ye know Costigan?"
"Troth I do."
"Well," said Murphy, he bet me a sixpence to a shilling that I couldn't swallow an egg without breaking the shell of it."
"And did ye lose the bet?" asked Pat.
"No, Pat, I won it," replied Murphy.
"Then pawt's ailin' ye?"
"Shure, it's the egg that's ailin' me," groaned Murphy, "if I jump about I'll break it and cut me stomach with the shell, an' if I kape quiet it'll hatch an' I'll have a Shanghai rooster scratchin' me inside." —Pearson's.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Aug. 24.—New York Air Brake and Crane, together with American Can, American Car, Pressed Steel Car, Republic Steel and Studebaker scored substantial advances. United States Steel made only a fractional gain at 71½, while Bethlehem Steel rose 5½ to 27½. Baltimore and Ohio was the feature of the railways, gaining a point on favorable juggling.

Prices were at highest levels in the last hour, the request of the German ambassador that the United States withhold judgment on the sinking of the Arabic till all the facts should be known, being a favorable factor. The closing was strong.

Marked improvement in the situation between Washington and Berlin was reflected in a further substantial recovery of prices today.

While the conspicuous features of the early session was its dullness compared with the furious activity of the preceding day, trading fell away almost 50 per cent and was limited to fewer issues. The trend of prices indicated some indecision which gave way later to actual strength. Steel again asserted its leadership, advancing to 72½, 4½ over yesterday's minimum. Bonds were firm.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Chicago, Aug. 24.—Trading in December wheat was the feature of the grain market today, in the first part of the session, liberal buying of that option, sending prices upwards. September weakened slightly. The trade seemed somewhat divided on the European political outlook and this gave a tone of uncertainty to the market in general. Reports of additional frosts in the Canadian Northwest furnished the dominating influence in lifting December wheat. Opening figures ranged from a shade lower to 1c higher with September 1.01 to 1.01½ and December at 98 to 98½. December advanced to 99½ while September held within the opening range.

Corn was influenced by the strong tone of December wheat. An active demand gave an upward trend to the market, after it had opened unchanged to ½c higher with September at 74½ to 75 and December 63½ to 64.

Outs followed the hardening tendency of other grain and after an irregular opening scored a fair advance all around.

In spite of strength of hogs, there was a dropping tendency in provisions, prices shading off in the whole list under light demand.

Heavy profit taking by several large houses and reports that frost damage in the Canadian northwest was not as great as first feared caused a material drop in wheat prices in the last half of the session. The close, after a slight rally, was steady ¼c to ¾c lower with Sept. at 99½ and December at 97½.

Corn followed wheat downward and was affected also by offerings larger than the demand and with shipping call moderate. The market closed irregular ½c higher to ½c lower with Sept. at 74½ and Dec. 63½.

State Insurance Superintendent Frank Taggart, subject to the approval of Governor Willis made three appointments. He appointed

AVIATOR ESCAPES, IS MADE A HERO

Paris, Aug. 24.—Eugene Gilbert, the French aviator, brought down five German aeroplanes before he was compelled to land, by an accident to his motor, on Swiss territory last June. Since his escape from Switzerland and his arrival in Paris on Sunday night, he has been treated as a popular hero.

When first interned in Switzerland, Gilbert gave his word not to attempt to escape. The enforced idleness preyed on his mind, however, and he took back his promise and seized the first opportunity to get away. With the assistance of a friend who provided a disguise, he made his way to Lucerne and Geneva and thence to Annemasse in France.

Afterward the premier and war minister conferred at length with the ambassadors for the allied powers. Orders have been dispatched to the foundries and factories of the empire that are engaged in the production of munitions to rush their work.

ICE KING'S STORY CASTS LIGHT ON HEALTH QUESTION

The amazing story of John Rohman's return to health electrified every one but his intimate friends in the Falls City. Mr. Rohman, who is known throughout Kentucky as the "Ice King", had been a sufferer from stomach trouble and a general debilitated condition for two years before he took Tanlac, the "Master Medicine".

Like many other people, Mr. Rohman was a little skeptical regarding the merits of the new preparation, as he had tried many medicines without obtaining the right results. However, the publication of testimonials from good substantial citizens of Louisville whom he knew convinced him that the medicine was worth trying.

After taking Tanlac less than two weeks, he made the following statement:

"As I came up two men were running out of the woods. One of them was Joe Carter and the other was a man they told me was representing the Associated Press. I also saw W. J. Frey, A. E. Robinson and W. A. Sammes."

"Was Frank dead?"

"Yes sir, the death rigor had not set in however."

"Was there any mutilation of the body?"

"No sir, the only mark I saw was the cut in the neck that had been opened by the rope."

Dr. W. M. Kemp, another physician, testified that Frank's death was due to strangulation.

"Do you know anything about the commission of this act?" asked Mr. Dorsey.

"Nothing whatever."

"That's all."

J. Bart Wing, a Cobb county commissioner was the next witness. He also was among the first to reach the scene of the lynching after the body was discovered.

"Do you know anything about the hanging?" he was asked.

"Nothing."

W. J. Frey, owner of the place on which Frank was lynched and regarded as the chief witness of the inquiry, next was sworn. Mr. Frey, an officer of the county, took the stand in his shirt sleeves. He is a very large man of about 45 with a short brown mustache and florid complexion.

"Mr. Frey," asked Acting Solicitor Dorsey, "did you know Leo M. Frank?"

"I attended his trial in Atlanta two days but I did not know him."

"You were among those to discover the body?"

"Well sir, when I got there with Gus Benson and Walter Gann, there was not anybody in the grove but Leo M. Frank."

"When did you first know anything had happened that morning?"

"I think it was about 5 o'clock that morning my brother telephoned me the state prison farm had been broken into and Frank taken out."

"What did you do then?"

"I didn't do anything but went on about my business at home. Walter, a traveling man, from Augusta, was visiting at my place. I live right on the railroad. Mr. Gann and I were in the field about 6:30 or 7 o'clock when three or four automobiles came whizzing by the place. They were forty yards apart."

"How fast were they going?"

"Well sir, they were going along pretty fast; I should say about 25 or 30 miles an hour."

"Then what happened?"

"Well sir, having heard about the break at the prison farm, I popped right into my mind there was something in the way of Frank."

Mr. Frey said the man he afterwards found out was Frank, was seated in the rear seat of one of the passing cars with a man on either side of him.

"How was Frank dressed?"

"Looked as if he had on a thin shirt of some sort. He was bare headed."

"Did you know at the time this man was Frank?"

"I thought it was him but I could not recognize him."

"Did you recognize any of the other passengers in the cars?"

"No sir."

"Do you know now who they were?"

"No sir."

"Were they masked?"

"No sir, but they all wore goggles and their faces were covered with red dust."

"What did you do next?" Frey was asked.

"I turned to Walter Gann and said 'Let's go to the house. There's something going to be doing.' We went to the house and Mrs. Frey had breakfast ready for us in about five minutes. We ate and I got my car started and we put out for Marietta."

Mr. Frey said he passed the actual scene of the hanging with identity of the parties who participated in the lynching.

The nearest disclosure as to what happened in the oak grove near the Frey gin came from J. A. Benson, a Marietta merchant, who drove by the place soon after the lynching party had parked its automobile by the roadside and had led Frank to the tree where death awaited him.

Mr. Benson said he had a pretty good suspicion as to what was going on but he did not stop to see and he did not recognize anybody in the party.

The text of the jury's verdict was as follows:

"State of Georgia, Cobb county."

"In accordance with the indictment taken this 17th day of August, 1915, and completed this 24th day of August, 1915, before John A. Booth, coroner of said county, upon the body of Leo M. Frank, who was hanged by the neck until dead in a cluster of woods about two miles east of Marietta in said county, and near what is known as W. J. Frey's gin on the Roswell public road. Upon the oaths of Dr. Perkins, J. N. Gann, J. A. Heard, B. V. Greer, J. P. Shaw and J. A. Griffin, sworn according to law, as jurors, and charged by John A. Booth to inquire when and how and in what manner the said Leo M. Frank came to his death; that the said jurors aforesaid make and return the following presentments in reference to the aforesaid matters and things concerning which they were sworn to inquire by the said John A. Booth, coroner. We attach the evidence adduced at this inquest, to this, our indictment and make the same a part of it."

"We, the jurors aforesaid, upon our oath say that Leo M. Frank did on the 17th day of August, 1915, in said county, come to his death by being hanged by the neck until dead, by unknown parties."

When the time for the jury to assemble arrived the coroner decided to transfer the inquest to the county court house to accommodate the large crowd on hand to hear the testimony. Attorney John Dorsey, of Marietta, represented the state of Georgia. Gordon Gann acted as special attorney for Coroner Booth.

There was some talk early in the day of holding the inquest in executive session. It was argued that witnesses might be intimidated in a closed session. The jury was sworn in the open air, however, was soon dismissed. The jury was composed of six residents, Dr. W. H. Perkins, being the foreman. Dr. C. D. Elder, the first witness called to the stand, testified to seeing the body of Frank while he was still hanging in the oak grove. Dr. Elder did not know Frank personally but was told the body was that of Frank. He was not present when the body was cut down. When he arrived at the scene of lynching the body was still warm.

"Do you know any of the circumstances surrounding the hanging?" asked Mr. Dorsey.

"Absolutely nothing," replied the witness.

"You were among the first to reach the scene?"

"Yes sir."

"How many people were present when you arrived?"

"Perhaps half a dozen."

"Do you know who they were?"

"Yes sir."

"Please name them," requested Mr. Gann.

what it already has but considers too fragmentary to be of full value. When some word is received from Germany the government's action will be decided. The effect of the latest development in the situation is today only a few days longer.

One overnight cablegram from Ambassador Page contained some additional information but it said the evidence so far collected was still too fragmentary in character that further advice must be awaited. In answer to an inquiry as to how long it would take to get the information one high official said it might be two or three days.

Though precise in its declarations that the Arabic was unarmored, that she did not attempt to escape, that she was not warned and that she did not attempt to ram the submarine, the British admiralty statement which probably will be accepted as evidence, unless rebutted by German testimony, leaves unmentioned the possibility of a genuine misunderstanding by the German submarine commander of the Arabic's turn to port just before the fatal explosion.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Detailed official information surrounding the destruction of the White Star liner Arabic with the loss of two American lives still was lacking today. Officials, however, continued their efforts to get the facts necessary to enable the United States government to base a course of action upon.

Further dispatches were looked for from Ambassador Page at London giving a summary of affidavits obtained by him from American survivors and also word from Ambassador Gerard as to whether he had received a report from the German government on the sinking of the Arabic.

While the Washington government will not seek any explanation from Germany for the sinking of the Arabic in view of its warning against the destruction of merchant ships without notice, it is believed here that one will be volunteered unless Germany wishes to make an outright issue with the United States.

Meanwhile the situation continues a waiting one, with official anxiety increased in the absence of word from the German government.

Refuses To Sell Atlanta Any Goods Because Of Lynching

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 24.—A Boston firm which for the past two years has furnished the city of Atlanta with caulking yard and tools has refused to have further dealings with the municipal authorities until action is taken in connection with the lynching of Leo M. Frank, according to W. E. Chambers, purchasing agent.

Mr. Chambers today made public the following letter received from the concern:

"Answering your letter of the 17th we do not care to quote prices on caulking and we do not wish to solicit further any of the business of the city of Atlanta until the state of Georgia has taken official action looking to the apprehension and punishment of those men who murdered Leo M. Frank."

The communication was signed by the president of the company.

Not until he was exhausted was he captured by throwing blankets over him. Physicians reported this morning that he would die. The boy was bitten by a dog ten days ago.

JUDGE TARBELL'S DECISION IN PLUMBERS' CASE IS DECISIVELY IN FAVOR OF ORGANIZED LABOR

DENIES DISSOLUTION OF BUILDING TRADES COUNCIL AND DISMISSES PETITION; AN APPEAL TO BE TAKEN

Organized labor won a decisive victory in local common pleas court Tuesday afternoon, when Judge J. W. Tarbell, of Georgetown, dismissed the petition of the members of the local Master Plumbers' Association asking for a dissolution of the Building Trades Council of Portsmouth and for an injunction restraining the members from interfering with the plaintiffs by alleged unlawful methods. Every relief asked for by the plaintiffs was denied by the court.

Organized labor in Portsmouth won every point at issue in this case, which has attracted nation-wide attention.

Judge Tarbell's opinion was an oral one, but a stenographic report of it was taken for use in the event that an appeal is taken to the higher court.

Judge A. Z. Blair, attorney for the plaintiffs, stated after the opinion had been rendered that an appeal would be taken. Judge Tarbell fixed the appeal bond at $100.

Every point that was made on the case by the plaintiffs was taken up by the court, who decided adversely in each instance.

At the outset, he entered into an exhaustive review of the events leading up to the disagreement between the master plumbers and the journeymen plumbers from the time the original agreement was ratified until the open trouble last April. In this review was included the happenings at the various meetings of committees from both sides in an effort to agree upon a satisfactory settlement of their differences.

Did Not Come Into Court With Clean Hands

Taking up first the issue of alleged unlawful combination on the part of the defendants as alleged by the plaintiffs, Judge Tarbell held that the plaintiffs themselves did not come into court with clean hands, in that they themselves had formed an organization and had dealt with the defendants as an organization.

Together they had formed a working agreement, the provisions of which were to be binding on both sides, he stated. While it may be true that some of the terms of that agreement were manifestly unfair to one side or the other, it followed naturally that such a condition had arisen by reason of the fact that each organization was endeavoring to advance its own individual interests, and that concessions had been made by both sides before the agreement was ratified in its entirety.

No evidence had been offered by the plaintiffs to show that the defendants had violated any portion of that agreement, and the court held that it was an unfair request on their part to ask for a modification of any part of it during the life of the agreement.

Both Willing To Continue Agreement

In connection with the allegation that the agreement was unlawful, Judge Tarbell emphasized the fact, as shown from the evidence and exhibits that the plaintiffs were perfectly willing to continue under that agreement if the defendants would accede to the modifications which they asked. When they refused, the plaintiffs then came to court with the claim that the agreement was unlawful.

As to the claim that the agreement was against public policy, the court stated that there was nothing in the evidence to show that the public was injured by the operation of the agreement.

He called attention to the fact that while the agreement was in operation, 95 per cent of the plumbing permits issued in the city of Portsmouth had gone to the firms represented by the plaintiffs. The public, he maintained, was interested only in greater efficiency at a lower cost and the court could not see how such a condition would be better brought about by a verdict for the plaintiffs.

Claims Both Sides Contributed To Conditions

"Whatever undesirable condition has arisen in this city as a result of the present controversy is not due alone to the acts of the defendants. The plaintiffs also contributed to it with their organization," declared the court.

At this juncture, the court announced that the petition of the plaintiffs would be dismissed, and the relief prayed for denied. But he added that he did not desire to dodge any of his responsibility as the court, and would pass on all points so that a complete statement of the court on all questions involved would be available for review by a higher court, in the event that an appeal was taken.

The other points concerned the rights of workmen to organize into unions, the right of the unions to affiliate as a central body, and their right to work for whom they choose as individuals and as labor bodies.

UNCLE SAM, MIRACLE WORKER, MAKES BUSINESS MEN SOLDIERS

Business men receiving first lessons in care and use of rifles. Uncle Sam has often proved his ability as a miracle worker, but he has never shown to better advantage in this role than during the past ten days at Plattsburg, N. Y. In this time he has turned 1,200 of the nation's business men, soft and flabby from years of sedentary life in office and factory and without military experience, into a body in which nearly every man has all the earmarks of a soldier.

Bills To Meet On Wednesday; Will Perfect An Organization

There is going to be a meeting of all Bills in the city Wednesday evening August 25th, in the Masonic Temple to perfect an organization that will work out the details of the famous Bill Parade, which is to be one of this year's features of the Korn Carnival.

"Bill" H. Burt will act as chairman of the meeting. An effort will be made to have more than 100 Bills present at tomorrow night's meeting.

Holds Workmen Have Right To Organize

In passing upon these points, Judge Tarbell said:

"Workmen have a right to organize unions for the common benefit of their members, for the purpose of advancing their skill, to obtain better wages and working conditions and may bind themselves by rules, constitutions and by-laws within the scope of such purpose of organization; they may, for their own interests, make reasonable regulations as to how and when they will instruct in the skill of their trade, and they cannot be compelled to teach others against their will; they may persuade others not to enter their trade; they may refuse to work with or instruct those not registered in their union and they may, with an honest purpose, refuse to work with men who refuse to join their union, or the union of crafts with which they are affiliated.

Unions Allowed To Affiliate

"Local unions representing separate crafts or trades may affiliate in what is known as 'Trade Councils' and it is not unlawful for such councils, by printed advertisement, or other public notice to advise the public of what contractors representing the different crafts are considered fair by organized labor. It is not a coercion or intimidation to advise a contractor or an individual that if he employs non-union labor on any part of a job or contract, that union labor will refuse to do any work upon that particular job or contract.

"An employer has a right to employ whomever he chooses and can discharge at will, for any cause, and without cause, unless he is bound by a term contract.

"On the other hand an employer may work for whom he pleases, or pleases, or quit and refuse to work for any reason, or without a reason, unless bound by a term contract. The same right belongs to employees as an organization or in affiliated bodies."

Did Not Pass On Agreement

In response to a question from Judge A. Z. Blair, the plaintiffs' attorney, Judge Tarbell replied that he was not going to pass upon the legality of the agreement nor did he think it incumbent upon the court to do so, since, both sides had approved and ratified it, knowing full well the conditions for which it provided.

He intimated, however, that he thought certain sections of the agreement unfair, some to one side, and others to the other side, and he expressed the wish that fair-minded representatives from both sides would get together and erase them from the agreement.

"I could take one good man from the Master Plumbers' Association and one good man from the Journeymen Plumbers' Association, and with myself, we could settle all of the differences between the two sides in ten minutes," declared Judge Tarbell.

Another declaration of the court, not included in the opinion proper, which struck home to the few spectators present, was:

Judge Says Labor Clashes Unsuccessful

"I have never known a strike yet which worked any advantage to the laboring man; nor have I even seen any attempt made to crush labor unions which resulted in any advantage for those who tried to bring it about."

In informally discussing his opinion from the bench, Judge Tarbell stated that he had read more labor cases within the past three weeks than he had criminal cases in his entire practice, and he indicated that he had come to his decision only after the most thorough thought and close study of the statutes. He has spent several days in the Cincinnati law library, he said, pouring into labor cases and labor decisions, a few of which he cited as having a close relation to the issues involved in the case at hand.

In many respects, the case is without precedent in Ohio, and Judge Tarbell's decision will have a country-wide interest. Former Clerk of Courts Roy McElhenny and Jno. W. Hall the present clerk have been besieged with requests for copies of the decision from all over the country, and they will be forwarded as soon as they are available.

A Review Of The Suit

The suit grew out of a dispute last April between the Master Plumbers and the journeymen plumbers over the operation of their working agreement, which still had two years to run, the former wanting some of the provisions modified on the ground that they were unfair to them. The journeymen refused to accede to their request, claiming that the agreement was made in good faith and should be lived up to in every particular until the time limit expired.

When several conferences failed to bring about a compromise, the master plumbers advised the journeymen that all negotiations were closed, and that they would not abide by certain provisions of the agreement. This was followed by the filing of a suit asking the court to dissolve the Building Trades Council with which the journeymen plumbers are affiliated, on the ground that it was an unlawful combination, and to enjoin the members from interfering in any way with their operations.

Judge Gave Case Extensive Consideration

Evidence in the case was adduced before Judge Tarbell several weeks ago, which was followed by the submission of arguments and written briefs by the opposing counsel two weeks later. Since then, Judge Tarbell has been busy reviewing the evidence and exhibits, and consulting the law upon which to base his decision.

Judge A. Z. Blair of this city represented the plaintiffs, while Attorney Edgar Miller, of this city, and Nicholas Klein, of Cincinnati, represented the defendants. The local attorney conducted the defense at all of the court hearings.

Consider Improvement Of Bridge Approach

Representatives of the board of county commissioners, city council, city officials and the Board of Trade visited the west end of the city Tuesday afternoon to discuss the most likely plan of improving the east side approach to the bridge and making it more easily accessible for vehicles and more attractive in appearance.

The plan most favored is to acquire ownership to the three cottages on the north side of Second street, remove them from their present location, and construct a paved approach in line with the street. The acquisition of the properties will be left to the city council, while the county commissioners will co-operate with the improvement of the approach. Nothing definite, however, will be decided upon until the commissioners consult with their legal advisor, Prosecuting Attorney Joseph Micklethwait, as to the legal restrictions.

At the conference were Mayor Adam Frick, Messrs. George Gulker, Frank Schmanek and John Moeller, of the city council. Messrs. J. J. Spencer, William Bennett and Daniel Egbert, of the county commissioners; President W. B. Anderson, of the Board of Trade, and City Engineer George Wilhelm.

Condition Serious

Jasper Edgington, aged 72 of Eleventh street was stricken with paralysis Tuesday afternoon. His left side is affected and his condition is serious.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 60.

Dear Miss Wise.—Would like to know who has charge of the Ohio State Fair this year? If you please would like to have the address of the Art Hall.

MRS. L. C. D.
James W. Fleming, assistant secretary of the State Board of Agriculture has charge of the fair this year. A letter addressed to him in care of the State Board of Agriculture, Columbus, Ohio, will reach him O. K.

Dear Miss Wise.—How can amendments be made to the constitution? What is meant by prefixing "Pan" to another word? For example, Pan-America?

X. Y. Z.
Amendments can be made to the constitution by a vote of the people at a regular election. Pan is a Greek prefix, meaning all. Pan-American means All-American.

Chillicothe, O.—Dear Dolly.—I am a boy 17 years old. Am I too young to call on the girls and take them to the movies? At what time of evening ought I call and when should I leave? How is my writing?

THANK YOU.
You are too young to keep steady company with any one girl. However, it would be perfectly all right to take a nice girl out occasionally if her parents do not object.

Dear Miss Wise.—If a person goes to visit a friend out of town is the friend supposed to furnish the umbrellas, if needed, or is the guest supposed to bring her own?

MANDY.
The friend ought to be willing.

Dear Dolly.—We are 15 years old and would like to know what night is proper for boys to come to see girls.

CIUMS.
No night for a 15 year old—any night that it is convenient for grown-ups.

Dear Miss Wise.—Will you please tell me a way to clean a soft white felt hat?

WANT-TO-KNOW.
It can be cleaned with flour, corn meal or magnesia. Rub in good and let stand for awhile—say over night and then brush out with a stiff brush. You can also get preparations at a drug store for cleaning a white felt hat. Re-Nu is very good if used according to directions.

Dear Dolly.—Some time ago I wrote you asking for a recipe for watermelon preserves, but as it never appeared in the paper will kindly ask you again to please print such a recipe if you have one.

A HOUSEWIFE.
Watermelon Rind Preserve.—Pare off the outside rind and lay it into cold water for four hours, then change the water and put it on to boil. There should be enough of this fresh water to cover the fruit well. As soon as it has boiled five minutes take it off and put the rind into ginger tea, where it must remain all night. The next morning put it into fresh ginger tea and let it boil until you can run a straw through the pieces. Take the rind out of the tea and cut into small pieces an inch or two in length. Add the juice and rind of four lemons, and some sliced white rice ginger. Put one pound of sugar to one pound of fruit and boil them together for one hour. The lemon peel should be cut thin and boiled with the rind in ginger tea. Carefully remove the seeds from the slices of lemon, lest a bitter taste be imparted to the preserve. They can also be flavored with cloves, by sticking a whole clove in each piece of rind before cooking.

SAMMY.
The Henry W. Oliver building is the highest building in Pittsburgh, having 25 stories and two basements. It is 347 feet high from the street to the top, not including the flag pole, which is 65 feet high. It has 1,167 offices. The Eiffel tower in Paris is the highest structure in the world, but the Woolworth building in New York City with 54 stories and which is 790 feet high is the very tallest inhabited building in the world.

Miss Dolly Wise.—Can you kindly tell me what will take wrinkles out of a wistaria colored silk skirt, and oblige.

E. N.
I should think if you would press the skirt on the wrong side with a pretty hot iron the wrinkles would come out. Try the iron on the silk at a place where it won't show first and see if the heat has any effect on the color.

MAYSVILLE TIED SCORE IN NINTH, WON IN TENTH

Burley Cubs Grab First Game, 5 to 4; Bush Back In Game

Maysville, Ky., August 24.

THE Maysville team went up against the Cobblers from Portsmouth yesterday afternoon and downed that aggregation by a score of 5 to 4 in a ten-inning battle. It was the prettiest and most exciting game seen on the local lot this season and many of the fans say they would not care to go through such a hair-raising time again.

It was mostly a pitchers' battle between McGraynor and Jacobus with their team mates working like demons behind them.

It seemed as Mac had things all his own way up to the ninth when the score stood 3 to 1 in favor of the locals, but you can never tell about an old ball game and the visitors tied the score and went one ahead in the ninth. The Devorites came back in their half of the inning and tied it up and in the tenth put the winner across the rubber.

Manager Josh Devore was not able to get out on the grounds yesterday and the team was under the direction of Catcher DeBerry and Dee sure had some hair-raising experience.

The Devorites put two across in first. H. Devore walked, Emmer fanned and H. Devore went to second, French out, Jacobus to Spencer, DeBerry tripled and H. Devore scored. Tipton singled and DeBerry scored. Tinnin flied out.

In the second the visitors came across with one. McHenry walked and stole second and scored when Spencer doubled.

No runs were scored until the eighth when the locals scored one more. H. Devore out, Jacobus to Spencer. Emmer walked, stole second, French fanned. Dilhofer for the Cobs then attempted to pull a trick which did not work to his satisfaction. He pretended that he had let the ball get away from him but was holding it in his hand. Emmer thought the ball had gotten away and started for third and made it safe. Dilhofer made a hurried throw to third and the ball got away from Johnson and Emmer scored. Then came the ninth—the big ninth—in which the visitors put across three. Sherman singled, Caton singled, McHenry out, McGraynor to Henderson, Spencer fanned, Bush singled and Sherman and Caton scored, Doherty slapped out one and Bush scored.

The Devorites put across one to tie it up in their half of the ninth. Tipton walked, Tinnin singled and Tipton scored. In the tenth the locals put across the winning tally. H. Devore beat out one and went to second on Emmer's out and scored on French's single. The score:

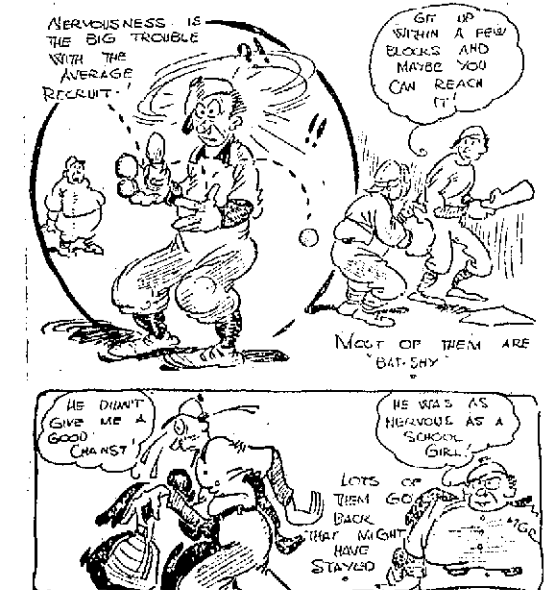

Burley Cubs Are In Front To Stay

It begins to look like Maysville is going to cop the second half pennant of the Ohio State League. The Burley Cubs are playing championship ball and with the season's end just around the corner it really begins to look like Josh Devore's team is going to come under the wire a winner.

A championship series between Maysville and Portsmouth would certainly draw big crowds in both towns and local fans are pulling for the Burley Cubs to win Flag No. 2.

W. A. Phelon, expert baseball editor of the Cincinnati Times-Star, has been busy with his days concerning the acquisition of the Red's newest pitcher, Mr. Cochran. In today's issue of the Times-Star Mr. Phelon states that his classie twirler was picked out by the Reds three years ago. The fact of the matter is that the Cochran for whom the Reds were angling three years ago, formerly pitched for Charleston in the O. S. L. He went to Chattanooga, while with that team the Reds practically closed a deal for him. This deal, however, was never closed and Cochran remained with Chattanooga, where

Lober In Slump

Our old friend Hans Lober is having an awful time this season. He is way under his usual mark in batting, hasn't been stealing half his usual number of bases, and can't seem to stop the law, sharp boundaries. He isn't charged with many errors, but when after what goes past him, and his are registered where putouts should be made. Lober can't understand his slump, and his good habits and attention to business make it still harder to figure out.

Get New Shortstop

(Charleston Gazette)
The Senators are to have a new shortstop in the game today. The man comes from Cincinnati, where he has been the sensation of that city among semi-professional ball players. His name is "Lucky" Mohman, who played the infield position for the Norwood team which is said to be the fastest collection of youngsters in the German town. He was a member of the same team as was Sherman, the star outfielder of the Cobblers and is said to be a handy man with the stick.

The Ironton Irontonian Tuesday morning said:
"Returning home from California, Charles A. Six Pullman cars left the track on the Colorado Midland railroad and the train had a narrow escape of being hurled down a mountainside."

PRAISE FOR REDS

New York fans insist that the way the Reds line up at present that they have a stronger front than either Brooklyn or the Giants. Isn't it funny how a few defeats put sport writers? If the Giants had kicked the Reds in the state a few more times this season these same carping critics would have said unreservedly that the fiercest clan was a typical tail end club.

CHINESE CATCHER OUTWITS MULLIN

George Mullin, former Detroit star, was outguessed by the Chinese University players recently at Chester, when he tried to work his emery ball in a game against the Celestials. Mark, the clever catcher of the Chinese team, became suspicious after Mullin threw nine successive strikes. He could not believe that the veteran had such perfect control, and each half took a peculiar hop. He got hold of the ball and discovered the rough spot. Instead of making a protest, Mark told Apou, the Chinese's best pitcher, to also use the emery ball. Apou knows something about the freak delivery himself, and got away with the game, 3 to 1.

SPORT SALAD

The Detroit Tigers have gathered quite a bunch of minor league talent through purchase, instead of depending on the drafting of players.

Mr. Watson of Buffalo, has homed in on the Reds' heavy batting stunt which was supposed to be copyrighted by Benny Kauff, the Brooklyn slugger.

In taking every game played with Washington at Boston this year, the Red Sox have beautifully decorated the Griffiths with the gizzards raus.

At any rate "Wild Bill" Donovan has kept his Yankees learing around the edges of the first division, a feat that is not half bad for the first season as a big league pilot.

Jack Combs' brilliant work for the Dodgers has ousted more than one American League manager to regret not having gone after the old twirler when he was cast adrift by Connie Mack.

Cleveland rumor has it that Lee Fohl is to be retained as manager of the Indians for next season. "Lis said that President Somers has turned down all other applicants to fill the managerial shoes vacated by Joe Birmingham.

COMB SAGE TEA IN LIFELESS, GRAY HAIR

Look young! Common garden Sage and Sulphur do naturally nobody can tell Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and with a touch of blue. Sage and Sulphur. When her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Weyb's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp, and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Weyb's Sage and Sulphur, because it does so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

Feds Are Trying To Tempt Mamaux

Pittsburgh, Pa., Aug. 24.—Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh Nationals, claims that he has knowledge of an effort made by the Federal League to take Al Mamaux, the pitcher, away from the Pirates. Dreyfuss said that it was not for the purpose of having him play in any game this season, but the Reds have offered him a large salary if he will remain idle the remainder of the year and sign up with the Federals next year to play. Dreyfuss said: "Mamaux was spirited away from the West Penn hospital last Tuesday at 1:45 o'clock and did not return until 6 o'clock that night. I have learned none of this from Mamaux himself, because I did not care to approach him on the matter at this time. I am willing to believe him loyal until I have proof that he is not."

CAMP TRAGEDY LEADS TO ANOTHER DEATH AND ARREST

Toll Of Four Lives; Officials Work On Two Theories In Unraveling Mystery

As the investigation of the terrible explosion near Sciotoville last Sunday morning which claimed a death toll of four lives and wrought permanent injuries to a half dozen more continues the county authorities are confronted with two possible theories of the motive behind the dastardly crime.

One is jealousy over a woman, and the other is revenge for gambling losses. Kid Walker, a negro arrested as suspect soon after the explosion, fits into the first theory, and Al Marshall, a negro also arrested as a suspect Monday afternoon, is connected with the second theory.

Statements of several camp companions of Walker, according to officials, agree in one essential that Walker, angered because of William Ross' attentions to his paramour, Alice Jackson, threatened to do Ross bodily harm. It will require additional evidence to prove that he planned the explosion to carry out that threat.

On the other hand, the county officials, while at the scene Monday afternoon claim that the learned from several witnesses that Marshall had lost a large sum of money gambling Saturday afternoon and evening, and that some of the victims of the explosion profited by his losses. It is claimed that he brooded over his ill luck at gambling and assumed a sullen attitude toward those who had won. The fact that he did not sleep in his usual bunk Saturday night and that he has talked continually about the explosion since it occurred, strengthens the latter theory in the minds of many.

No formal charges have been filed against either Walker or Marshall, and they are being held on suspicion. Sheriff Smith stated Tuesday that neither of them would be arraigned today.

Report from the Hempstead hospital this afternoon was that William Ross, the most dangerously injured of the victims yet alive, was holding his own, and that he had a fighting chance for recovery.

Second Arrest
 Another arrest was made Monday afternoon in the C. & O. Northern camp dynamiting case. Al Marshall, a negro workman, having been placed under arrest on a charge of suspicion by Sheriff Smith.

Marshall's arrest was made up on the statements of several persons in camp, who claimed that he had been talking a good deal about the explosion. It was also regarded with suspicion that he was not in his bunk when the explosion took place. If he had been he would have been numbered among the injured.

Marshall had some words with some of the men in the ill-fated shack early in the evening, it was reported to the sheriff. He denies all connection with the crime.

Sheriff Smith and Prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait returned from the scene of the explosion about seven o'clock Monday evening, after having spent the afternoon there in search of evidence. They interviewed several of the camp laborers, and stated Tuesday morning that they obtained information that would aid them in ferreting out the guilty man. This information, they said, they would keep secret for the present.

Little importance is attached to Marshall's arrest by the officers, who regard Walker, the negro arrested Saturday night, as the guilty man. Marshall will be held, however, as an important witness, and it may develop that he knows something that will assist them in running down the crime.

Another Victim

Another innocent life paid the penalty of a jealous man's vengeance when John Lewis, 33, colored, of Chattanooga, Tenn., breathed his last at the Hempstead hospital about six o'clock Monday evening. Injuries sustained in the dynamite explosion plotted and fiendishly executed supposedly by a fellow laborer at the W. B. Perkins C. & O. N. railroad construction camp near Sciotoville Saturday night caused the death.

Lewis was suffering from a dislocated hip, two broken ankles, severe bruises and lacerations about both legs, the face and head. From the force of the explosion, Lewis' entire system was badly shattered and from the first his condition was alarming.

Ross Is In Bad Shape

William Ross, 28, of Georgia, for whom it is said the dynamite was planted, while spending a very restless night, was slightly improved Tuesday morning. Very little hope had been held out for his recovery but his improvement gives him a slight chance to live.

Ross is suffering from the amputation of the left arm below the elbow, the left leg near the knee and bruises all over the body. It is claimed the dynamite was placed directly beneath the spot where Ross was sitting.

With Lewis' death, the list is swelled to a total of four, the toll exacted as a result of the explosion. The others who died Sunday and Sunday night are: Ben Harrison, 33, Lexington, Ky.; Robert Banks, 38, Ironton, Ohio; Henry Carter, 35, Asheville, N. C.

Lewis' body was removed to Daehler's morgue where it has been prepared for burial. Undertaker Albert Daehler has wired a brother of the victim, James Lewis, at Chattanooga, Tenn., for instructions as to what disposition to make of the body.

Soon after Robert Banks, the colored cook of the Perkins camp, had breathed his last at the Hempstead hospital, Miss Lena Gibson, his intended bride, of St. Paul, Minn., called at the hospital to see him. His body had already been removed to the Daehler undertaking establishment.

Miss Gibson said that Banks had sent her $8.75 to come from her home to the camp two months ago, and that since that time she had been helping him as cook of the camp. They were to have been married within a few weeks, she said.

Banks was once married, but had been separated for sometime from his wife, who, it is said resides in Ironton.

Mr. Strong Makes Statement In Answer To Mr. Lowther

Editor Times:

In regard to an article in which Mr. Lowther attempts to justify the stand he has taken against organized labor, and some few remarks which he made about the writer, which was published in Monday's Times, I would like to make a few remarks.

He speaks of certain qualities and traits which he has noticed in my make-up, and insinuates that I got them from a certain boyhood friend of mine, which I made mention of in my former article. As he spoke of the color of my boyhood friend and as the only friend that remembers mentioning the color of was our yellow dog. I take it that he means my canine friend.

I believe I said that dog was a very good dog in many respects and had only one fault, he would suck eggs (but who among us has not their faults). Now I want to say he had many good and noble traits about him and if through environment and association I have imbibed a few of them I am indeed glad to hear it.

One of his noble traits was that he would never practice deception or in other words he was not a wolf in yellow dog's skin. Never would that dog pretend and try to make believe he was your friend if he was not. If he was your friend he would stand by you until the last yellow hair was off his noble back, but if he was your enemy you would know it as soon as you came in reaching distance. Never would he wag his tail in pretended friendship and then slip up behind and bite.

I am very sorry that Mr. Lowther did not make the acquaintance of our yellow dog in his youth, for who can tell the amount of good traits and qualities that might be derived through constant association. Of course it may be true that hereditary traits cannot be overcome by environment or association but in that case it would only have meant the loss of a few eggs more or less, or the utter depravity of the dog and a dog is only a dog after all.

Mr. Lowther says I make a deliberate misstatement of facts when I say that he wanted to hire union carpenters only on condition that they work with non-union men of other crafts. Again I wish to say that that is the only condition upon which Mr. Lowther would agree to employ union men. Not only did he make this statement to me but to other officials of the unions as well. We have proof to show that he did everything in his power to induce the union men to pull away from their organization and go to work for him. He states that if the union men do not want to go to work for him he will not try to tempt them to do so (get the word compel, please); true he has not taken a gun and shoved it in the men's faces, but he has used about every other means to compel them to work for him. I wish to give Mr. Lowther full credit for every true statement that he makes and when he says that union men of every craft were employed on the Garfield school building he is telling the truth and everything was running smooth until the master plumbers broke their signed statement.

However, I wish to say that he was in the employ of the Barnes Construction Company at that time and was working under their instructions; that when the master plumbers caused trouble on the job we did everything in our power to adjust the difficulty without asking the men to come off, but without success. The men came off the building in a quiet and orderly manner, after making everything safe and using up all perishable material.

When he put non-union men to work we did not try to induce a single man to leave his employ, nor by any other method did we lay a straw in the way or hinder him from finishing the building. Mr. Lowther while working on the school building has repeatedly told others that there was to be a company formed in the near future which would employ non-union men only. He seemed very familiar with the business of this company at that time and since leaving the employ of Mr. Barnes he has employed all non-union labor on his jobs. In regard to his statements extolling the virtues of the bricklayers' union if it were not for the fact that it is not good policy to tell tales out of school there could much be said but far be it from me to cause any union man to hang his head in shame by making public the facts. He states that in his experience he has never seen a town where there was a building trades council that there was not always trouble for the reason that it makes the weaker locals arrogant in their demands because they know the stronger locals are compelled to stand by them. In this statement he again shows his ignorance of the subject of which he speaks. I want to say right here for the benefit of Mr. Lowther that no craft be it large or small can make a demand without the consent of the other crafts; it is carefully considered by the other locals as to whether those demands are just and reasonable, if conditions would warrant such demands at that time, etc. If for any reason it is found inadvisable that the demand should not be made the craft making it is instructed not to present them to their employers. As to his statement that if it was left to the union men to settle this trouble it would be settled before sunset, it but sounds like, the noise made by my baby's rattle box and is about as silly a remark as any sensible man could be guilty of making.

The different locals affiliate with the Building Trades by a majority vote of the local and by a majority vote make the laws of the Building Trades and when Mr. Lowther makes such a statement he casts a slur on every organization and an insult in the face of every union man in the Building Trades crafts and attempts to deceive the minds of the public by such misleading statements and as I said before my yellow dog never practiced deception. But if Mr. Lowther wants to show the union men and the public in general that he wants to do the right thing we will gladly meet him half way and will go to work for him on the same terms under which we are working for all the other contractors in the city.

HARRY STRONG.

KAPS CAMPAIGN EXPENSES

Editor Times:

An editorial in Monday's Times unintentionally did both Mr. H. H. Kaps and Mr. Charles E. Hard an injustice.

Mr. Hard's speech was made Friday night, August 6, when all campaign expenses were supposed to be at an end. An unexpected political development on Monday, August 9, three days later, put the Kaps campaign committee to the unusual expense of keeping a large job room plant, with its full force, working all night; the distributing of 14,000 circulars; added mailing expense; renewed and extended newspaper advertising, etc. This added over $75 to the Kaps campaign expenses, three days after the speech by Mr. Hard.

Again Mr. Kaps' expenses were really $100 less than shown by the reports required by law. Mr. Kaps contributed $100 to the advertising and printing expense of his campaign committee and so reported. The campaign committee expended this same $100, and under the law also had to report it. Thus the Kaps expense apparently seemed to be $100 larger than it really was because of this duplication in reporting, required by law.

Deducting this $100 duplication the total Kaps expense, including the emergency expenditures of Monday night before the primary, was only $475, a sum not unreasonably large for conducting a candidacy in a city of nearly 30,000 people and containing 29 voting precincts in a spirited five cornered contest. When Mr. Hard made his speech at Kendall hall the Kaps expenditures were quite reasonably, supposed to be under $400.

Respectfully,
 THE KAPS CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE.

A blow on the forehead felled the negro and he fell to the cement floor in the waiting station, a hole being knocked in the back of his head. Park Officer Henry Koger had considerable trouble bringing the negro to, and when he did he placed him on the Sciotoville car, with orders to stay away from the park.

U. S. A WAITS EXPLANATION FROM GERMANY

POWERS DISAGREE ON RIGA BATTLE

London, Aug. 24.—The latest details concerning the Riga naval battle have failed to clear up the situation. Petrograd advices make it appear certain that the Germans met with a severe reverse, although official Berlin reports remain silent concerning the Russian claims. The Russian now state that an additional cruiser must be added to these already reported sunk or put out of action.

Whether the German battle cruiser attacked by a submarine was sunk remains to be told, the official report from Petrograd having given no details beyond stating that she was torpedoed. Except for the report from the marine ministry of Paris concerning the sinking of a German patrol boat off Ostend, which is

U. S. WILL HELP COTTON GROWERS

Washington, Aug. 24.—Secretary McAdoo was prepared today to extend financial aid to the Southern cotton growers to enable them to dispose of their product to the greatest advantage.

The secretary announced that in view of the action of the Allies in making cotton contraband, he was ready, if necessary, to take either one of two courses to help the cotton producers. One of these plans is to deposit $30,000,000 or more in gold in the Federal reserve banks at Atlanta, Dallas and Richmond to enable those banks to re-discount

PEOPLE BUY JEWELRY, GOOD TIMES ARE HERE

New York, Aug. 24.—The fact that people are again buying jewelry was cited by T. L. The convention began yesterday and will remain in session until Saturday.

"The jewelry business is a good barometer," said Mr. Combs. "People are now buying jewelry

Missourians Face Food Shortage

St. Louis, Aug. 24.—Two thousand residents of Valley Park, Mo., under house arrest when the 35 foot rise of the Missouri river flooded the town with 10 to 15 feet of water, today faced a food and drinking water shortage which threatened to result disastrously. Twenty-five truck loads of food were rushed to the flood refugees from suburbs of St. Louis yesterday, but this was consumed before the night was over.

He was the only man in the command to show that they knew the war game thoroughly. At times they almost go away from Sergeant Bacon. "Please, please, men," came the voice of the former diplomat, "don't hurry so—keep even! Don't rush things. For heaven's sake do this thing right. Don't let us have an awkward squad here."

Mr. Chambers today made public the following letter received from the concern:

"Answering your letter of the 17th we do not care to quote prices on caulking and we do not wish to solicit further any of the business of the city of Atlanta until the state of Georgia has taken official action looking to the apprehension and punishment of those men who murdered Leo M. Frank."

The communication was signed by the president of the company.

RESUME INQUIRY INTO FRANK LYNCHING TODAY

Marietta, Ga., Aug. 24.—Prior to the resumption here today of his inquiry into the lynching of Leo M. Frank, just a week ago, comparatively little was known of the plans of Coroner John Booth. The jury of inquest was impaneled just after Frank's body was cut down from the oak near the William Froy gin house. At that time members of the jury heard two witnesses as to the identity of the dead man and then adjourned until today, so the inquest might proceed in a calm atmosphere and to permit the coroner to collect evidence. Special counsel for the coroner was provided by the county commissioners.

Coroner Booth had set ten o'clock as the hour for the jury to meet today at an undertaking establishment.

Just how many witnesses were to be heard had not been announced, but the general impression for several days has been that they would be few. Several persons, said to have seen the lynching party on the road near Marietta, were expected to tell what they know, but the likelihood of determining the identity of any participants in the affair has all along been regarded as distinctly remote.

Some members of the coroner's jury, it was said today, had expressed doubt that they could reach at this time any other conclusion than that Frank came to his death at the hands of "parties unknown," the lynching will be officially called to the attention of the Cobb county grand jury Sept. 1.

GERMAN PAPERS SAY LITTLE OF ARABIC

Berlin, Aug. 24.—(Via London)—No further details concerning the sinking of the Arabic have been published here and the Berlin papers refrain from comment upon the situation resulting from that event.

The newspapers publish what purports to be a brief dispatch to the London Telegraph quoting Joseph P. Tully, President Wilson's secretary, as saying that Americans are unitedly with the president and will if necessary offer their lives to maintain the inalienable rights of Americans on land and sea.

The Kreuz Zeitung says: "These inalienable rights, as is known, consist of using British passenger steamers."

Several papers publish the Arabic's manifesto on a trip from New York to London beginning July 29 as contained in a report of the German-American chamber of commerce of New York. This report says that the Arabic "which was painted like a battleship had twelve American guards and twelve American sailors."

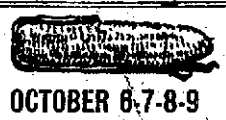

The Lokal-Anzeiger says that this report shows that the Arabic was equipped for battle and therefore not to be considered a harmless merchantman.

The Tages Zeitung heads the London Telegraph dispatch with the line "Wilson's secretary threatens."

Lad Bitten By Dog Terrifies Entire City

Lima, Ohio, Aug. 24.—Fred Gunther, a 12 year old victim of hydrophobia, terrified hundreds of citizens in the west end of the city late last night. For two hours the lad ran like a mad dog about the streets, pedestrians fleeing before him.

He bit into trees, telegraph poles and fences. Mothers in the neighborhood hurried their children to safety. Men were afraid to go near him. Not until he was exhausted was he captured by throwing blankets over him. Physicians reported this morning that he would die. The boy was bitten by a dog ten days ago.

OCTOBER 6-7-8-9

WON'T TAKE ACTION UNTIL SINKING OF ARABIC IS REPORTED

Washington, Aug. 24.—Detailed official information surrounding the destruction of the White Star liner Arabic with the loss of two American lives still was lacking today. Officials, however, continued their efforts to get the facts necessary to enable the United States government to base a course of action upon.

Further dispatches were looked for from Ambassador Page at London giving a summary of affidavits obtained by him from American survivors and also word from Ambassador Gerard as to whether he had received a report from the German government on the sinking of the Arabic.

While the Washington government will not seek any explanation from Germany for the sinking of the Arabic in view of its warning against the destruction of merchant ships without notice it is believed here that one will be volunteered unless Germany wishes to make an outright issue with the United States.

Meanwhile the situation continues a waiting one, with official anxiety increased in the absence of word from the German government.

OPENING GUNS FIRED IN WET AND DRY FIGHT

Columbus, Aug. 24.—While Anti-Saloon League leaders gathered today at Buckeye Lake to formulate plans for their campaign in this state this fall, the organization, which is backing the proposed referendum on the McDermott liquor license law was sending out from its headquarters here large packages of blank petitions to be circulated in the various counties.

The activities of the two organizations amounted in fact to the opening guns, of which promises to be a campaign of many angles.

While the Anti-Saloon leaders have announced that they will make state-wide prohibition the paramount issue, they have also given it out that they will make a vigorous war in opposition to the constitutional stability league amendment, which they allege is a product of the wets. The proposed amendment will prohibit the re-submission of any amendment more than twice in six years. The McDermott law referendum depends upon whether the 87,000 names required are obtained upon the petitions to be filed with the secretary of state. Former Judge Frank H. Kerr, of Steubenville, in charge of the organization of the McDermott referendum, told callers today that there was no doubt in his mind that the necessary signatures would be obtained. From the state liquor license commission denial was reiterated again today that members of that body or members of the various county boards were taking any part in the fight over the proposed referendum.

French Will Give Americans Scholarship

New York, Aug. 24.—Soldiers of the French army have arranged for the establishment in Paris of three scholarships for Americans to be endowed and perpetuated as a monument of gratitude for the sympathy which America has shown to France during the war, and as an evidence of their appreciation of the work of the La Fayette fund.

News of this action was received at the headquarters of the fund in this city today. Captain De Poiles wrote branches of the army are supporting the plan. The scholarships are in music, art and sculpture and will be known as the La Fayette Fund Scholarships of the Army. The captain wrote that 40,000 soldiers had been helped and comforted by the kits forwarded to them by the La Fayette.

DISCUSS PUBLIC SERVICE

Boston, Aug. 24.—A conference of universities and public service departments which was opened here today in connection with the governors' convention drew to this city many students of the public service problem.

The object of the meeting was to discuss every possible plan for making public service officials more efficient. Dr. Charles McCarthy, head of the Wisconsin Executive Reform Library and Samuel McCormick, chancellor of Pittsburgh University were the speakers at the opening session.

ANOTHER DEAD, NEW ARREST IN CAMP TRAGEDY

Fifth Victim Is In The Shadows; Officers Are Busy

Another arrest was made Monday afternoon in the C. & O. Northern camp dynamiting case. Al Marshall, a negro workman, having been placed under arrest on a charge of suspicion by Sheriff Smith.

Marshall's arrest was made up on the statements of several persons in camp, who claimed that he had been talking a good deal about the explosion. It was also regarded with suspicion that he was not in his bunk when the explosion took place. If he had been he would have been numbered among the injured.

Marshall had some words with some of the men in the ill-fated shack early in the evening. It was reported to the sheriff. He denies all connection with the crime.

Sheriff Smith and prosecuting Attorney Micklethwait, returned from the scene of the explosion about seven o'clock Monday evening, after having spent the afternoon there in search of evidence. They interviewed several of the camp laborers, and stated Tuesday morning that they obtained information that would aid them in ferreting out the guilty man. This information, they said, they would keep secret for the present.

Little importance is attached to Marshall's arrest by the officers, who regard Walker, the negro arrested Saturday night, as the guilty man. Marshall will be held, however, as an important witness, and it may develop that he knows something that will assist them in running down the crime.

Another Victim

Another innocent life paid the penalty of a jealous man's vengeance when John Lewis, 33, colored, of Chattanooga, Tenn., breathed his last at the Hempstead hospital about six o'clock Monday evening. Injuries sustained in the dynamite explosion plotted and headlessly executed supposedly by a fellow laborer at the W. B. Perkins C. & O. N. railroad construction camp near Seafordville Saturday night caused the death.

Lewis was suffering from a dislocated hip, two broken ankles, severe bruises and lacerations about both legs, the face and head. From the force of the explosion, Lewis' entire system was badly shattered and from the first his condition was alarming.

Ross Is In Bad Shape

William Ross, 28, of Georgian, for whom it is said the dynamite was planted, while spending a very restless night, was slightly improved Tuesday morning. Very little hope had been held out for his recovery but his improvement gives him a slight chance to live.

Ross is suffering from the amputation of the left arm below the elbow, the left leg near the knee and bruises all over the body. It is claimed the dynamite was placed directly beneath the spot where Ross was sitting.

With Lewis' death, the list is swelled to a total of four, the toll exacted as a result of the explosion. The others who died Sunday and Sunday night are: Ben Harrison, 33, Covington, Ky.; Robert Banks, 38, Ironton, Ohio; Henry Carter, 38, Ashville, N. C. Lewis' body was removed to Daehler's morgue where it has been prepared for burial. Undertaker Albert Daehler has wired a brother of the victim, James Lewis, at Chattanooga, Tenn., for instructions as to what disposition to make of the body.

Soon after Robert Banks, the colored cook of the Perkins camp, had breathed his last at the Hempstead hospital, Miss Lena Gibson, his intended bride, of St. Paul, Va., called at the hospital to see him. His body had already been removed to the Dice undertaking establishment.

Miss Gibson said that Banks had sent her $8.75 to come from her home to the camp two months ago, and that since that time she had been helping him as cook of the camp. They were to have been married within a few weeks, she said.

Banks was once married, but had been separated for sometime from his wife, who, it is said resides in Ironton.

Forty Years In Stock

The latest coincidence which has just come to my knowledge (writes a correspondent) befell an elderly gentleman well known in literary circles. Wishing to refer to a book he had used in his school days, he visited the second-hand shop in Charing Cross road which specializes in this class of work. On inquiry he found they had one copy of the volume in stock. When he opened it he found on the front page his own name written there well over forty years ago.—Pall Mall Gazette.

Evolution.

Modern Hotel For Ironton Is Assured, Will Soon Contract

The Ironton Irontonian Tuesday morning said:

"A modern hotel for Ironton is assured.

"This much was determined at a conference Monday night of the hotel company directors and Mr. S. H. Meyer, of Charleston, W. Va., representing the Reed Construction Company, of that city, which will erect the new hotel.

"At the meeting last night a contract for the new building was approved by the board of directors and the president and secretary of the company were authorized to sign it. This will be done just as soon as the instrument is gone over by Mr. Meyer's attorneys. Mr. Meyer returns to Charleston immediately to have this matter taken up at once. He stated that the contract was perfectly agreeable to him and that he saw no matters of controversy in the same, but it was the rule of his company to have all contracts approved by their legal advisors before they were executed.

"Thus it may be confidently stated that Ironton's modern hostelry, so long anticipated, and for which there is such a crying need, is a matter solely of the time it will take to construct it.

"The work of construction is expected to begin within a few days after the signing of the contract."

Looking For All But 10 Cents Of His Only $20 Bill

All but ten cents of a $20 bill, which he had, is being hunted by police authorities for Eliza Artrip of Lincolnton, Ky., who claimed he was doped and robbed just after he left a saloon in the East End. Artrip was visiting at the home of Anna Hood, 2320 Seventh street, and, according to a story told the police, Mrs. Hood sent Artrip to the Distal saloon to have the $20 bill changed. Artrip, it is claimed, purchased a glass of beer and a sandwich and received $19.90 in change.

En route home he ran into three fellows who are said to have been rushing the growler. He took a glass of beer with them and that is the last he remembers. He staggered into the Hood home minus his senses and the change from the $20 bill, it is claimed. Artrip insists he was doped and Officer Osborn is working on the case.

Politicians Busy

The Ironton Irontonian this morning says:

"It is reported that Recorder John Innes and President Copper, of the board of commissioners, went to Portsmouth Monday on a secret (?) mission. They convinced themselves that the trip would be secret.

"The time is drawing nigh when the liquor commissioner of this district, if there be no referendum on the law, will be selected and no doubt these two went to Portsmouth with all kinds of deals in their minds. Mountain, the other voter (?) did not go. It is a race in this county between Copper and Schmitt and this trip may be fruitful of something in this direction. But the spectre of a referendum makes them shaky."

WILL ACT AS JUDGE

P. H. Harsha, of this city, will leave Monday morning for Columbus, where he will act as one of the racing judges during the State Fair.

Mr. Harsha is one of the squarrest fellows in the world and knows all the ins and outs of horse racing. He will occupy a place in the judges' stand and will have a clear vision of the track at all times. Mr. Harsha is quick to see foul driving and drivers need not think they will be able to put over anything on the Portsmouth judge. It was quite a compliment to Mr. Harsha to be selected as one of the three judges.

DECISION COMING IN PLUMBER'S INJUNCTION

Judge Tarbell, of Georgetown, will either arrive in Portsmouth at noon today to announce his decision in the Plumbers' injunction suit, or will mail his decision to the clerk of courts, to be given to the opposing counsel. If he comes in person, his decision will be rendered in common pleas court at one o'clock this afternoon.

Ancient Dentistry.

Dentistry seems to have been practiced on this side of the ocean almost as early as in Europe or Asia. It is quite likely, indeed, that the art of filling teeth was first discovered here. At any rate, pre-Columbian skulls from both Ecuador and Mexico are in evidence having teeth richly studded with gold and in some instances precious stones.

Banana Juice for Snake Bite.

In snake-infested countries banana juice is being exploited for snakebite. To test the efficiency of this simple remedy, F. W. Fitzsimmons experimented with the venom of cobra, puff adder and other serpents, trying the banana juice upon animals bitten by the snakes. In no case could he discover that the alleged "cure" had any beneficial effect.

RAID CROPPER SALOON AGAIN; WHISKEY TAKEN

Thieves again raided the Tod Cropper saloon, on Eleventh street, early Tuesday morning, and escaped with a quantity of liquor and a little over $4 in money. Entrance was gained by tearing the screen away on a side window, and breaking a glass. A small screw-driver used in gaining an entrance was abandoned and is being held by the police.

Mr. Cropper stated to Officer Osborn, who was detailed to investigate the robbery, that he was unable to state just how much liquor had been taken. The money was in a small box alongside the cash register and the thieves had easy access to it. No clue.

Asks Officer To Have Drink, Arrested, Fined For Bootlegging

Asking that he be allowed to come into court and enter a plea, Charles Collins, colored, when arraigned before the mayor in police court Monday night pleaded guilty to a charge of bootlegging and was fined $100 and costs. He made arrangements to pay the fine and was also placed under $1,000 bond requiring him to refrain from violations of the liquor law in the future.

Collins' arrest was brought about in a peculiar way. While the police department has been suspecting him no tangible evidence could be secured. Sunday Officer Roy Moore while substituting for Officer Callahan Smith passed the Dr. B. W. Hubert residence, 1019 Findlay street and was invited in to "have a glass of beer." Moore accepted the invitation and claims he saw five dozen bottles of beer on the table. Collins is claimed, tried to find out from the patrolman just what intentions the police department had toward him.

Monday the Hubert cellar was raided but the only thing found was a couple of baskets full of empty pints and half pints.

The Movies

Marguerite Clark At Tyrio Tomorrow Marguerite in an idyllic blending of comedy and sentiment, "Gretta Green."

Marguerite Clark, the dainty and fascinating stage and screen favorite, is certain to add appreciably to her astounding popularity in the Famous Players Film Company's picturization of the celebrated comedy romance, "Gretta Green," by Grace Livingston Furniss. This quaint and picturesque play possesses all the varying elements essential to the successful screen drama—love, sacrifice, humor, mystery and thrill—and is laid in the charming period of the early nineteenth century, when daring elopements to Gretna Green, a lover's possible only through the film, reigned over the marts of commerce, just before the prose of business usurped the poetry of romance.

In "Gretta Green" Marguerite Clark bewitchingly portrays the adorable character of Dolly Erskine, a little English belle and a bit of a flirt, who queens it over the beaux of the realm with sovereign sway, until she loses her heart—under circumstances both humorous and dramatic.

Miss Clark's winsome personality, her piquant beauty and elfin grace, assist her in making the role of Dolly one of her greatest character creations. The romance and humor of "Gretta Green" have thrilled and amused countless audiences as a play and thrill—and is laid in the charming period of the early nineteenth century, when daring elopements to Gretna Green, a lover's possible only through the film, reigned over the marts of commerce, just before the prose of business usurped the poetry of romance.

The admission will be ten cents in this picture, for both afternoon and evening.
